

2023 ALAH Honors Night Held May 10

Honors Night for the Arthur Lovington Atwood Hammond Class of 2023 was held at the high school on Wednesday, May 10.

The welcome was given by Steffanie Seegmiller, principal at Arthur Lovington Atwood

Hammond. She and Nathan Seal, assistant principal at ALAH, gave out many of the awards along with presenters from all four communities. Principal Seegmiller thanked the parents, faculty, and the students themselves.

Following the welcome, more than 70 community organizations, families, and colleges awarded 37 seniors over $1.3 million for their future endeavors.

Eastern Illinois Education for Employment System 340 Regional Health Occupations recognition was presented by Aleah Clatfelter to Kaylin Hutchinson.

Regann Bowles received the Rutledge/Kettwich Memorial Scholarship presented by Margo Blaudow.

Lovington Ambulance Service Scholarship was presented by Carol Benedict to Emma Edwards.

Nucor Corporation Scholarships were presented by David Bangert to Emma Edwards, Chilton Ingram, Kailee Otto, and Nolan Schrock.

Arthur Fire and Ambulance - Bill Mitchell and Marty Benard Scholarships. Pictured is presenter Duane Hopkins, recipient Andalyn Hodge, recipient Ava Binion, presenter Matt Bernius, and recipient Ashley Seegmiller.

Steve Finke/Jody Lyn Benedict Memorial Scholarship. Pictured is recipient Lyle Adcock, presenter Ann Finke, recipient Chloe Franklin, presenter Carol Benedict, and recipient Jacob Adcock.

Lucas Otto Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Charley Condill and Kailee Otto. They are the recipients of this first time award in memory of Lucas who tragically lost his life on June 30, 2022 and was presented by Coach Ryan Jefferson pictured in the middle.

Lovington Volunteer Fire Department Scholarship was presented by Gary Smith to Chloe Franklin.

Fred Boll Scholarship was presented by his daughter Sandra Boll Stone to Regann Bowles.

Arthur Edward Jones Scholarship presented by Ryan Kleiss to recipient Regann Bowles.

More scholarship winners pictures next week.

