

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL 7 ON 7 AT SHELBYVILLE

On Wednesday, July 12 the ALAH Knights football team traveled to Shelbyville for a 7 on 7 competition with the Rams. Both Jr. Varsity and Varsity played on one half of the field at the same time and alternated playing offense and defense for 20 plays each. Here freshman Marcus Otto, quarterbacking for the JV Knights looks to throw down the field.

Coach Mitch Wilson, center of the huddle, shows the next play to the Knights JV offense at the 7 on 7 competition at Shelbyville last Wednesday.

A large group of 35 high school football Knights break the post game huddle at Shelbyville last week. The Knights played the Rams in a 7 on 7 competition with both jv and varsity participating. The Knights will travel to Robinson on Saturday, July 22 for their annual 7 on 7 tournament and lineman competition.
