Harvest of Hope Family to Return for the Third Year

The Harvest of Hope Family Concert is returning to Mattoon on August 12 to give Coles County, and surrounding counties, another music-filled night full of worship and fun. Rural King, America's Farm and Home Store, and local Christian radio station WBGL are once again teaming up to bring in talent from up-and-coming artists to award winning acts. With over 5,000 people in attendance last year, the third annual event is sure to be a hit. This year, the show will kick off with Emerson Day, followed by Tasha Layton, and then Matt Maher will take the stage before the headlining act We The Kingdom closes out the show. Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased at wbgl.org.

Tickets for the event are $30 and every person or organization who purchases has the ability to donate the full price of their ticket to a registered Christian organization of their choosing. In the past two years, this concert has given back over $150,000 to the community. Amy Shafer, who leads Rural King's Foundation and charitable endeavors, has been thrilled by the community response and turnout.

"Harvest of Hope is such an inspiring event, and it is quite literally filled with a feeling of hope. For the past two years, artists have played to sold out crowds, with people coming from near and far, running to grab their seats, to join in a night of worship. The best part is not just the fun evening, it's that each person has the ability to make an impact, giving back to organizations that change lives everyday."

The concert will be held at Peterson Park inside the baseball diamond. The City of Mattoon Park Department's crew make it possible for the event to be held. Lauren Norris, Event Coordinator, is thankful for the support Kurt Stretch and his team have given to the event.

"Without Kurt and his team, the back-end setup and tear down would not be possible. They help with getting electricity and water for our vendors, setting up tents, fencing, and helping with clean up to ensure we can come in and seamlessly hold the event."

Gates will open at 3:30pm on August 12 for attendees to get settled and get a bite to eat from one of the many food trucks in attendance. Coolers and welcome to be brought in but please refrain from being pets. There is on-site parking available and also shuttles available for those who park at the Cross County Mall.

To donate through your ticket purchase, simply visit ruralking.com/hope, click on enter receipt information, and search for the organization you wish to support. You'll enter some information from your ticket and they will receive their total donation in the weeks following the event.
