Reunion

After the meeting those in attendance had the opportunity to attend one of three tours - visit the Illinois Amish Heritage Center, tour three early Amish homesteads or take a tour of Lovington sites where Joseph Hostetler, the Boy Preacher and great grandson of Jacob Hostetler, settled. Joseph is buried in Keller Cemetery in Lovington and was a founder of the Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, in Lovington. The town is the site of much of the Hostetler family history. The name of Lenard Grant Hostetler, a descendant of Jacob Hostetler, can be found on the cornerstone of the Lovington Christian Church and the stained glass window in the church has an inscription in memory of the Hostetler family. What is now the funeral home in the town was once the home of L.G. Hostetler as well. The hardware store owned by the Hostetler family in Lovington became a bank and was known for many years as the Hardware State Bank. A very well known landmark, the flag house just outside of Lovington, was also a Hostetler home.

The next meeting of the Descendants of Jacob Hostetler will be held in 2028 in northern Indiana.
