

ALAH JR. HIGH SOFTBALL VS NEOGA & WINDSOR STEW STRAS

The ALAH jr. high softball Knights played hosts to Neoga on Monday, August 7. Here #16 Kyndrie Carter slides into home safely in the first inning. The Knights held a 3-1 lead after the first.

ALAH's Annabelle Vanasadoll rounds second base after her long hit to right field in the game vs. Neoga last week. Annabelle would keep on running and beat the throw to home plate. Her run tied the game at 6.

Knights pitcher Annelise Ponder tags out the Neoga runner at home plate with catcher watching from behind. The game was played at John McGrath field on August 7. The game would go into an extra inning before Neoga won 16-14.

Knights Laila Sanchez takes a lead off first base in the fifth inning of the home game with Neoga on August 7. Laila would eventually score to get the Knights within one run at the end of the fifth inning. The home team would take back the lead in the sixth only to have Neoga tie it at 10 in the seventh and send it into an extra frame.

The ALAH jr. high softball team breaks their pregame huddle to take the field in their home game on August 8. The Knights played Windsor Stew-Stras in the game.

ALAH eighth grader Addison Dixon bats in the third inning of the Knights home game against Windsor Stew-Stras on August 8.

Keely Simpson an eighth grader on the Knights jr. high softball team heads to first base after hitting a single. Her hit drove in Kyndrie Carter, coming down the third base line, for an RBI in the game with Windsor Stew-Stras last week.

ALAH left fielder Abby Franklin is up to bat in the jr. high Knights home softball game with Windsor Stew-Stras on August 8. The girls were to play at Bement vs. Cerro Gordo Bement on August 10 and host Tri-County on August 15. They will be playing Paris Crestwood on Wednesday, August 16 also at home.