

ALAH JR. HIGH BASEBALL VS MONTICELLO

The ALAH jr. high boys baseball Knights opened their 2023 season on the road at White Heath facing the Monticello Sages. Seventh grader Donovan Vanausdoll was the starting pitcher for the Knights.

Knights starting shortstop Jase Kingery crosses the first base bag safely in the third inning of the first game of the season. Jase beat the throw by the Monticello infielder to earn a single. ALAH played Monticello at White Heath on August 11.

ALAH jr. high catcher Griffin Hilton beats the tag as he steals second base in the game at White Heath last week. The Knights were playing the Monticello Sages.

#14 Jaleb Burnett came in to pitch the last two innings of the first jr. high baseball game of the season against Monticello last Friday. The Sages won the game 9-4. The jr. high baseball team was to play at Paris Mayo on August 12, at home against Paris Crestwood on the 14th, Warrensburg Latham on the 18th and vs. Villa Grove on August 22. All home jr. high baseball games are played at Lovington and start at 4:30 p.m.

The Knights jr. high baseball team also played a B game on August 11 at White Heath against the Monticello Sages. Here #16 Julius Morrow is at bat in the first inning.

Griffin Ponder was the pitcher in the Knights B game vs Monticello on Friday, August 11. The game was the season opener for the Knights.

Elijah Forman bats in the second inning of the B game with Monticello last week. The B teams played two innings which allowed the players on both teams an opportunity to have a chance to bat.

Knights Head Coach David McGrath, far right and his assistant Spencer Kirby talk to their players following the jr. high baseball season opener with Monticello last Friday.