

ALAH JR. HIGH SOFTBALL VS TRI COUNTY

Bella Romine gets ready to throw the first pitch in the jr. high softball game on August 15. The Knights played hosts to the Tri-County Titans in the contest.

In an unusual play, Knights eighth grader Alana Perez escapes the tag of the Tri-County catcher as she was caught between third base and home trying to advance. The unusual part was that Alana would score by alertly realizing that the Titan pitcher had not returned to the mound with the ball allowing Alana to score.

ALAH first baseman Kyndrie Carter catches the ball thrown to her by shortstop Annabelle Vanausdoll for an out in the third inning of the Knights home game with Tri-County last week.

Knights eighth grader Ava Moody slides safely into home as the ball comes back to the Tri-County pitcher who was covering home. The Knights won the game 16-4 in four innings. The Knights were to play home games on August 16 with Paris Crestwood and on the 19th vs. Okaw Valley. They would play Villa Grove away between those games on the 17th before embarking on a stretch of seven away games.

ALAH JR. HIGH SOFTBALL VS PARIS CRESTWOOD

The ALAH jr. high softball team played Paris Crestwood on Wednesday, August 16. Prior to the game Knight captains, #8 Annabelle Vanausdoll and on the right, Alana Perez, along with Assistant Coach Whitney Wyncoop, center, met with the home plate umpire and the Crestwood head coach.

Knights right fielder Alyssa Dixon throws the ball back to the infield after fielding it in the game with Paris Crestwood on Wednesday, August 16.

Laila Sanchez, Knights jr. high softball catcher keeps her eye on the ball behind the plate in the game against Paris Crestwood last week. ALAH fell to Crestwood 15-0.

Knights right fielder Chloe Jones bats in the third inning of the Knights home game last week. They played Paris Crestwood and were to play Okaw Valley on August 19. The girls don't have another home game until September 5 when they host Sullivan. That game will also be their last regular season game.
