4-H youth raise money through county fair auction

By Doris Elmore

Summer is winding down, the kids are back in school, the crops are beginning to turn, the weather is doing its thing (whatever that is), meaning fall is just around the corner. While it has been a while since the Moultrie-Douglas County Fair, it is never too late to brag about our 4-H Youth and the amazing items for the auction on July 7, sponsored by the Moultrie-Douglas Extension Foundation with Ellen Mathias, chairman. She is assisted by Erica Lehman, Sarah Reedy and Ashley Seegmiller. The 4-H members work hard all year to present a quality product. This is shown by what they bring to the auction. It is amazing the amount of the bidding prices. Such as $125 for a watermelon or $650 for iced cinnamon twists. The bidding keeps going up and up, but it's all for the 4-Hers

A highlight of the auction was the presentation of the Michael Gutheridge Award to Maddox Reedy. This award is voted on by the 4-H members to a member who has gone above and beyond to help other 4-H members. The award was established in memory of Michael Gutheridge, a long-time 4-H member who was killed in an auto accident in 1993 at the age of 15½. Any 4-H member would be proud to receive this prestigious award.

In addition to 4-H members showing their work, Moultrie-Douglas royalty assisted in showing a few items. Royalty included Miss Moultrie-Douglas County Fair Queen Reggan Smith, Jr. Miss Adyson Cusick, and Little Miss Lydia Cummings.

Auction items were as follows:

Watermelon, shown by queens, proceeds benefit the Extension Foundation. Donat-

Each year, the auction not only brings in a lot of money for the extension and 4-H members, it is very entertaining watching people try to outbid each other to bring a higher premium. I imagine moms and dads, grandmas and grandpas have a hand in higher bidding. What a fun evening for all!
