tributions to the Arcola community through his dedicated service. He held the position of President at both the Arcola Foundation and the Arcola Public Library, where he devotedly served for an impressive 32 years. His leadership during this period was marked by the successful oversight of a building expansion project, resulting in the facility's size doubling to better serve the community.

Dorothy Jones

Dorothy Vay Jones, 91 of Arcola, passed away at 3:45 p.m. on Wednesday, September 6, 2023, at Odd Fellow Rebekah Home in Mattoon.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at a later date. The Edwards Funeral Home is assisting with arrangements.

Dorothy was born on November 7, 1931, in Martinsville, Va. She was the daughter of Curtis and Inez (Davis) Williamson. She married John Charles Jones on May 23, 1964, in Riverside, Calif.

She is survived by her husband, John of Arcola; five children, Wilma Roberts of Arcola, Christina Whipple of Tuscola, Carol Blakley and her husband Jerry of California, Casey Jones and his wife Dawn of Dixon, and Carolyn Gallagher and her husband Paul of Iowa; two daughters-in-law, Rosie Jones, and Sondra Jones, both of Washington; one brother, Curtis Clay Williamson and his wife Diane of Fayetteville, Ga.; one sister, Barbara Ann; and one brother-in-law, Hoyt McClendon of Florida; many grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; four children, Sonny Jones, Randy Jones, Beth Jones, and Gina Sue Jones; one grandson, Jeffrey Neil Whipple; and two sisters, Edith McClendon and Clara McNally, Throughout her life, Dorothy held various jobs that exemplified her strong work ethic. She spent many years working as a waitress at both 3 Bears Restaurant in Rubidoux, Calif., and Dottie's Cafe on Broadway in Humboldt. Her warm smile and friendly nature made her a beloved member of the community in both places. After leaving the service industry, she found a stable career at Coles Moultrie where she worked for 29 years reading meters until her retirement. Even after retirement, Dorothy continued to contribute to the local community by farming 30 acres west of Humboldt for eight years.

Dorothy's true passion lied in spending time with her family. She enjoyed every moment with them and cherished the times spent with her grandchildren. Their laughter and joy brought immense happi-

In addition to his commitments in the public sphere, Skip also lent his expertise as a farmer to the Arcola Grain Elevator board. Furthermore, he contributed spiritually as an ordained elder, offering his guidance and support to the Arcola Presbyterian Church. Skip's multifaceted service undoubtedly left a lasting and positive impact on the community of Arcola.

Skip cherished several passions throughout his life, with none shining more brightly than what he called the “Four ‘Fs” – Faith, Family, Farming, and his unwavering support for the Fighting Illini!

A visitation was held Monday, September 11, at the Shrader Funeral Home in Arcola. A Celebration of Life service was held Tuesday, September 12, at the Arcola Presbyterian Church. Burial followed in the Arcola Cemetery.

Jose loved to listen to music and make music. He always wanted to be a famous rapper; he was very good at it. Those who had the pleasure of hearing some of his music and making the music with him will agree.

Jose enjoyed having a good time and when he got to laughing it was hard not to laugh with him. He enjoyed watching movies and TV shows with his sister Rosie every day. Jose was always the protector of his sisters, Marcia, and Rosie. He was the absolute best brother “bubby,” son, and friend to so many people. Jose was the type of guy that would do anything for someone he cared about.

Jose fought until the very end, and he will always be re-
