

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL VS. ARGENTA-OREANA

The ALAH Knights high school volleyball teams played hosts to the Argenta-Oreana Bombers on Thursday, September 7. The freshman team started off the evening of games. Here #24 Izzy Melton goes up for a kill in the first of two freshman games. Teammates #15 Morgan Casteel and #20 Jorja Lebetter watch Izzy's hit.

Knights freshman #27 Alyssa Ahrendt bumps the ball up in the second game against Argenta-Oreana last Thursday. The freshman Knights split with the Bombers dropping the first game 26-28 but then taking the second 25-16.

Sophomore #8 Emma Forman bumps the ball up in the Knights jr. varsity game against Argenta-Oreana on September 7. Behind Emma is Skyler Vorck and #30 Halle Wardrip is also on the floor.

ALAH sophomore #31 Anna Rawlins sets the ball up to teammate Dalilah Mendoza in the JV match with Argenta-Oreana last week. Morgan Casteel watches from behind. The Knights JV won in three games, 17-25, 25-18 and 15-9.

Savannah Butcher, a sophomore on the ALAH varsity volleyball team goes up to hit the ball back to the Argenta-Oreana side of the net. Savannah had an ace and a kill in the contest. #28 Alayna Plank, #10 Sara Herschberger and #12 Summer Melton watch the hit.

The ALAH student cheer section, Knight Shift rides the roller coaster at the home volleyball game with the Bombers of Argenta-Oreana. Senior Hunter Grant, front, takes them on a wild ride!! As always the Knight Shift provides a definite home court advantage!

A new tradition is starting this year at ALAH home varsity contests. When the teams win they get to raise the Knights "W" flag. The volleyball team was able to do that after the victory over the Argenta-Oreana Bombers on September 7.
