

ALAH JFL VS SANGAMON VALLEY

JFL Knight #2 Adlee Berry runs through the hole created by his lineman in the home light-weight game with Sangamon Valley on September 17. #12 Elijah Burket and #25 Brodie Carter look to help block on the play.

#25 Brodie Carter crosses the goal line in the light-weight JFL game against Sangamon Valley last Sunday. Brodie broke away from the Storm defense to go all the way to the end zone with the halftime horn going off as he ran. His TD tied the game at 12 but SV scored two touchdowns in the second half to win 25-12.

ALLAH JFL heavyweight Bentley Hutson stiff arms the Sangamon Valley defender on his way to the end zone in the home game vs. SV on September 17. Bentley scored four touchdowns in the game.

Knights eighth grader Anden Berry follows his blockers, Bentley Hutson and #22 Beau Green on his way to a touchdown in the JFL heavyweight game against Sangamon Valley last Sunday. Anden also had a pass reception for a TD. The heavyweight Knights won their game 40-0 over the Storm. The JFL lightweight and heavyweight teams will play at home next Saturday, September 23 against Kincaid South Fork. Lightweights start at 4 and heavyweights at 6.

AT RIGHT: Zack Woodard, a 2022 ALAH alum is a member of the Eastern Illinois University Marching Panthers. Zack, a sophomore and the son of Justin and Diane Woodard is shown with his trombone in the stands with the band at the first home game of the Panthers' season last Saturday.
