

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL IN ACTION

The starters for the ALAH freshman volleyball team wait to take the court for their game with Tri-City/Sangamon Valley on Monday, September 11. From left to right: Morgan Casteel, Sophie Monts, McKenna Blaudow, Anna Rawlins, Jorja Lebetter, and Izzy Melton. The freshman was a timed single game with the Knights winning 21-20.

Knights freshman Morgan Casteel leaps to tip the ball back over to the Tri-City/ Sangamon Valley Tornadoes in the freshman game on September 11. Behind Morgan are #20 Jorja Lebetter and #22 McKenna Blaudow.

ALAH junior Natalie Hutchcraft returns the ball to the TC/SV Tornadoes side of the court in the jr. varsity game last week. The JV defeated the Tornadoes 25-13 and 25-12.

Halle Wardrip, a sophomore on the Knights jr. varsity team goes low for a dig in the home match with Tri-City/Sangamon Valley on September 11. Skyler Vorck, behind Halle and Brynlee Moore are also on the court.

ALAH sophomore Summer Melton goes up for a kill in the varsity volleyball match with Tri-City/Sangamon Valley on Monday, September 11. Summer had 10 kills and 4 digs in the match.

Knights libero, Karaline Vanausdoll, gets one of her 11 digs in the home varsity match last week. Summer Melton is behind Karaline and Hannah Carter is in front of her. ALAH defeated Tri-City/Sangamon Valley in two games, 25-19 and 25-16.

The ALAH volleyball teams traveled to Sullivan on Tuesday, September 12 to take on new Lincoln Prairie Conference member, the Sullivan Lady Redskins. Here, the starters for the jr. varsity Knights get ready to take the court for their first game. From front to back: Emma Forman, Halle Wardrip, Morgan Casteel, Skyler Vorck, Dalilah Mendoza, and Brynlee Moore.

Knights sophomore Dalilah Mendoza hits the ball over the net for a point in the JV game at Sullivan last week. The JV team won in 2 games, 25-22 and 25-19.

AT LEFT: Knight junior setter Alayna Plank gets one of her 17 assists in the varsity volleyball game at Sullivan on September 12. Alayna sets the ball up for #19 Addison Yeakel. Besides 17 assists Alayna had 2 digs, 1 ace and 1 block/kill assist.

In the varsity volleyball game with Sullivan last week, junior Maggie Benedict, far right, goes up for a kill with teammates #19 Addison Yeakel, #28 Alayna Plank, #12 Summer Melton and #9 Mackenzie Condill watching her hit. Maggie had 3 kills and 1 dig in the two game victory. The Knights won 25-13 and 25-12 for a 5-7 overall record and a 2-0 LPC record.