

ALAH HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL VS CUMBERLAND

Knights freshman Morgan Casteel goes low for a dig in the jr. varsity volleyball home game with Cumberland on Tuesday, September 19. The Knights JV won the match in three games, 25-19, 19-25 and 15-7.

ALAH junior Kat Perez #25 taps the ball to return it to the Cumberland Pirates in the jr. varsity match on September 19. #31 Anna Rawlins, Halle Wardrip, behind Kat and #15 Morgan Casteel watch the hit.

Halle Wardrip a sophomore on the Knights jr. varsity volleyball team bumps the ball up in the home match vs. Cumberland last week. On the court with Halle are #43 Natalie Hutchcraft and Sophie Monts.

Freshman McKenna Blaudow goes high to return the ball to Cumberland in the JV match last week. The Knights next home contest will be on September 28 against the Villa Grove Blue Devils.

Knights junior Sara Herschberger bumps the ball up to her waiting teammates #18 Maggie Benedict, #9 Mackenzie Condill and #12 Summer Melton. This action took place in the home varsity match with Cumberland on Tuesday, September 19. Sara had 2 aces, 2 digs and 1 kill in the match.

ALAH sophomore Summer Melton sets the ball up in the varsity match last week with the Cumberland Pirates. #9 Mackenzie Condill and #19 Addison are ready for the next play. Summer led the team in kills with 10.

Karatine Vanausdoll, Knights libero, goes low for 1 of her team leading 12 digs in the varsity volleyball match with Cumberland on September 19. Sara Herschberger watches Karatine's hit. ALAH lost the match to the Pirates in three games, 25-17, 13-25 and 18-25.

Junior Mackenzie Condill pushes the ball up to the front row in the varsity volleyball match vs. Cumberland last week. Watching Mackenzie are libero Karatine Vanausdoll and Summer Melton #12. Mackenzie had 6 kills and 7 digs in the match.