 or created? What is God's call for us, as Christians, towards people who are trans? What concerns do we have, if any, about medical intervention?"
 Pastor Terri Haas writes, "In The United Methodist Church, we believe that scripture, as supported by tradition, reason, and experience, is our most important tool for understanding God and God's call on our lives. However, scripture can leave us with many questions. Join us as we gather together to ask these questions and grapple with the answers. All respectful voices, no matter their point of view, are welcome. We just want to learn together."

 Haas said they plan to do more events in the future. They would also discuss the school-to-prison pipeline for young black girls, Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women, homelessness, human trafficking and other social issues.
