REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE

2222 State Highway 32, Lovington, IL 61937
$280,000

Mature trees and a beautiful river in the backyard

This 6.62 acre property is covered with mature trees and a beautiful river in the backyard. The home itself features 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, perfect for the whole family. Master bedroom has an ensuite bathroom with ample storage. All bedrooms are carpeted and do not have a single stain on them. The home features large windows letting in natural light and of course each has a lovely view of the property. This home does have a fireplace to keep winter months cozy and some vintage light fixtures that add allure and uniqueness that is hard to find, let alone recreate. Fresh paint has been done in the entire living area making this home more than move in ready. Laundry is located on the main floor in a large separate room off of the main living area, so no stairs to access! The large FULL basement is perfect for storage and workshop. You will find a sink and additional storage shelving and closets throughout the basement as well making organization a breeze. On the back of the home you will find a deck next to an enclosed porch that provides year round enjoyment of the park-like scenery in the backyard. A long driveway and rolling landscape provides great privacy while the garage located on the side of the home gives undeniable curb appeal. There is ample garage space as well as a carport for any overflow. There is an older barn located on the property as well adding charm and functionality. Located only 11.3 miles from Arthur, 11.3 miles from Sullivan and 19.6 miles from Decatur, this property location is ideal for someone looking for a short commute and ideal country living. This property is a MUST see to believe!
