in a conflict with China which will include Russia. Can we overcome something like that? I'm not sure anymore, are you? If ever there was a time for China to move to overtake our economy and currency structure nows that time. We have a President more concerned with chocolate chip ice cream, shaking hands with people that aren't there, reminding us he's Jill Biden's husband, and trying to stay conscious at world event summits. I'm no longer critical of the man,

I genuinely feel sorry for him because his family and daycare providers continue to expose him allowing him to publicly humiliate himself and embarrass America! It is indeed a critical time in America. Today we've shown the world we're willing to eat our own for political gain. What in the hell is happening to America and her citizens?!
