JIM KLEISS AUCTIONED OFF OVER 90 DIFFERENT ITEMS for the Tuscola Rotary Auction. The items were donated by several different local businesses. Money raised from the auction will be used to fund scholarships for seniors at Tuscola High School. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

KIRBY PRINGLE points out central Mexico on a project map during the Earth Day program he and Cindy Pringle hosted on April 22. The Pringles gave a presentation on the migration of monarch butterflies, which migrate from Mexico all the way up to the southern border of Canada. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

CINDY AND KIRBY PRINGLE SING A SONG about monarch butterflies after their presentation. They both like to do comedy routines after their educational topics. They also handed out sprouted milkweed and seeds after the presentation. Milkweed is essential to monarch butterflies, as it is the only flower the species uses for reproduction.
