

Community Spotlight

ROBERT E. KOSIC was sworn into office as Douglas County State's Attorney on May 15. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH of Tuscola is excited to announce that Tony Crouch will begin as their new Senior Minister. Tony and his wife, Marla have two sons and five grandchildren. Tony will officially begin his duties on May 30. Tony brings a wealth of experience in Pastoral Ministry. Submitted photo.

RICH HOLM waves at incoming traffic while Marvin Smith Hue and Paul Crawford Senior (middle) sit on the side of the road next to the SavMor parkinglot for Operation Honor Guard. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

BOB DENBO receives a donation from a car passing by for Operation Honor Guard in the SavMor parking lot. Nick Barrett smiles during their interaction. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

LINDA GLENN, right, presents a quilt on behalf of American Legion Post 27 to Heather Madden at Sav-Mor in Tuscola for her support in hosting annual fundraising for the Honor Guard. By 4 p.m. Wednesday, the drive had raised $12,227 The funds pay for expenses for the Honor Guard, which serves during veterans'funerals and at community parades. Photo by David Porter.

NORTH WARD PRINCIPLE JASON WALLACE reads to a group of kids for storytime. Head Librarian Devin Black sits next to him. The Tuscola Library is having a different guest reader for each storytime this summer. Submitted photo.

NORTH WARD STUDENTS try out new ladder ball sets for the gym as a reward after they raised $10,000 for heart research during the Kids Heart Challenge. The new equipment consists of ladderball sets, soccer balls, playground balls, and other miscellaneous items worth a total of $1,000. Submitted photo.

Herschberger chosen for rotary student of the month of May

Makenzie Herschberger was chosen to be the rotary student of the month of May. She earned this recognition by participating in various sports, clubs and other activities. She started off her freshman year strong by participating in FCA, Key Club, cross country, track and field, cheerleading and also the drama club. She also played a part in the Adams Family musical.

Herschberger focused most of her time on cross country, cheerleading, and FCA.

In her Junior year, she became a member of SADD, Key Club, NHS, Drama Club, cross country, cheerleading and the Clue play. She also helped out with the musical that year as well.

During her senior year, Herschberger participated in SADD, Key Club, cross country, cheerleading, NHS, track and field and FCA. Congratulations Makenzie!

Commercial Business Products that work hand in hand!

- Progress Business Checking
- Wire Manager

The Opportunity Bank
BANKPROSPECT.COM

