What are you most proud of during your time at TCHS, and why?

My proudest moment would be realizing that I am going to graduate.

What is your favorite memory of TCHS?

My favorite memory was when the boys basketball team made it to state.

Who was the most influential person throughout your high school career, and why?

The most influential person throughout my high school career would probably be Mrs. Hoel because she never gave up on anyone in our school and always gave us advice when we asked for it.

If you could, what advice would you give yourself on your first day at TCHS?

If I could give myself advice on my first day at TCHS it would be to just be myself.

What is a favorite quote, or one that best describes you?

The University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign; undeclared major.

What activities were you involved in at TCHS?

Student Council, Drama Club, NHS, Key Club, SADD, Juniorsettes, GSA, Art Club, Science Olympiad, Eco-meet, Class President, P7, and Varsity Scholastic Bowl.

What are you most proud of during your time at TCHS, and why?

I am most proud of my involvement in many clubs and activities at TCHS and my willingness to try new things. Without the clubs and groups I joined, my high school experience would have been much less enjoyable. I am happy that I put myself out there and tried to find things I was passionate about.

What is your favorite memory of TCHS?

My favorite memory was rehearsing for the fall production of Clue. I loved my character, my costume, my lines, and over all the fun we had trying to bring the whole thing together. Clue was a great opportunity for me to build connections and have something to do in my first year at TCHS.

Who was the most influential person throughout your high school career, and why?

The most influential people throughout my high school career have been my parents and teachers. They have all helped me become who I am and grow as a person, not just academically. They have stretched me and helped me through difficult times. Thank You!

If you could, what advice would you give yourself on your first day at TCHS?

I would tell myself not to sweat the small stuff and to not get worked up if everything is not going perfectly as planned. Plans change-- I would tell myself to adapt and try to be flexible even when things are hard.

What is a favorite quote, or one that best describes you?

"The way I see it, if you want the rainbow, you gotta put up with the rain." —Dolly Parton

What activities were you involved in at TCHS?

I was on the shot put and discus team for two years

What are you most proud of during your time at TCHS, and why?

The new friendships I made. I know I won't keep in contact with everyone I've known in my many years of schooling but over this last year I worked at establish new more impactful relationships.

What is your favorite memory of TCHS?

All of my action packed game days in PE. Beating coach Sterkel in Badminton was especially amazing.

Who was the most influential person throughout your high school career, and why?

Many of my friends helped me through hard times but Coach Sterkel made my junior year bearable. It's the main year of grind and struggle but he almost brightened my day and the less enjoyable moments were worth it.

If you could, what advice would you give yourself on your first day at TCHS?

It's not as grand as it seems. Seniors may seem like giants but in truth, we aren't much older than you and we act the same.

What is a favorite quote, or one that best describes you?

"We are the music makers and we are the dreamers of dreams" Willy Wonka
