90th birthday celebration

BILL DEEM celebrated his 90th birthday on July 15. If you see him around town, be sure to wish him a happy 90th.

Board

The Board appointed Charlie Mitsdarker as the EIASE Board representative, with Kristen White as the alternate.

Board President Jim Clark proposed the idea of having student advisors participate in board meetings. The City Council had a similar program with high school students acting as Junior Alderman.

The Board received the idea positively and hopes to discuss the idea further at the August meeting. Superintendent Munson plans to look into the details of having student advisors.

RISE

group therapy sessions to medication-assisted treatment, we offer a continuum of care that empowers individuals to take control of their lives and embrace lasting recovery. We are dedicated to creating a safe, non-judgmental environment where individuals can find solace, understanding, and the strength to overcome adversity.

We understand that embarking on the path to recovery takes courage, and it is our privilege to walk alongside everyone, providing unwavering support and guidance. Our current substance use provider, Amina Feder, is passionate about making a positive difference in the lives of those affected by substance use and mental health disorders. Amina focuses on utilizing a creative and engaging trauma-informed, strengths-based, and client-centered approach to services that equip clients with the individualized skills and supports that will help them meet their needs and goals.

RISE is excited to offer DUI and substance-use services to Douglas County and for continued collaborations creating a network of support with substance use-related service providers including Douglas County Probation and the Hour House. Assessment and outpatient treatment services will be available to adolescents, adults, and their families needing substance use support. As we embark on this journey together, we invite you to join us in creating a community where no one is left to battle their demons alone. Together, we can shatter the stigma surrounding addiction, cultivate empathy, and pave the way for a brighter and more compassionate future.

If you or someone you know needs support, please reach out to RISE Behavioral Health and Wellness at 217-253-4731. Remember, healing is possible, and we are here to help you every step of the way. Let us embrace healing, one heart at a time.
