Peggy Sieber

Peggy Lee Sieber, 64, of Mansfield, passed away at 11:15 a.m. on Monday, July 31, 2023, at her residence.

A service to celebrate Peggy's life was held Saturday, August 5, at the First Mennonite Church, Urbana. The Edwards Funeral Home assisted with arrangements.

Peggy was born on December 26, 1958, in Newton, Kan. She was the daughter of Lloyd Mason and Wanda Lee (Welly) Headrick. She married Marlin Floyd Sieber on September 16, 1978, in Hesston, Kan.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Marlin, of Mansfield; three children, Lyndsey Jantz and her husband Josh, Breanne Lee Sieber all of Hesston, Kan., and Travis Paul Sieber and his wife Katie of Newton, Kan.; five cherished grandchildren, Reese and Piper Jantz, Rylee Creamer, and Brynlee Sieber and Brayden Monares; two sisters, Denise Kruse and her husband Bruce of Newton, Kan., Jackie Randol and her husband Glenn of Wichita, Kan.; one brother, Kyle Headrick of Goessel, Kan.;

two brothers-in-law, Gerry Sieber and his wife Vonnie of Newton, Kan., and Del Sieber and his wife Sandy of Bondville; and two sisters-in-law, Norma Symns and her husband Tom of Longmont, Colo., and Nancy Seaman and her husband Denny of Champaign.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lloyd and Wanda Headrick; and her in-laws, Paul and Martha Sieber.

Peggy was a member of the First Mennonite Church in Urbana.

Peggy dedicated herself to caring for others throughout her life. Her career spanned nearly 30 years as a registered nurse at OSF Heart of Mary in Urbana, where she made a lasting impact in the Labor and Delivery department. She brought comfort and support to countless families during their most precious moments.

Outside of work, Peggy found immense joy in nature. She could often be found on their family farm, indulging in her love for horses or quietly observing the various bird species that graced their surroundings. Peggy's passion for bird watching allowed her to connect with the peace and beauty of the natural world.

Peggy will be remembered for her unwavering love for vintage hats and her exceptional skills in sewing, and crocheting. She was more than just a collector or a skilled craftswoman; she embodied grace, kindness, and warmth.

Memorials may be made to Healing Horse Stables in Be-Carmen Van O'Linda and husband Calvin of Hastings, Neb.; and six great grandchildren, Cason, Cambryn, and Cord Van O'Linda, Breckyn and Holt Tierney, and Wes McGee.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George; son, David; grandson, Benjamin McGee; brother, Lowell Roberts; and sister-in-law, Wilma Reece.

Wanda was a graduate of the Arcola High School Class of 1944, where she received the DAR Award for good citizenship. She then received her diploma from the Utterback's Business College in Mattoon and accepted a position at the Houdaille-Hershey Plant in Decatur. She worked as a secretary for an engineer on the highly secretive atomic bomb project.

Wanda was involved in the family farming operation, driving the grain trucks to the elevator, running farm errands, and taking meals to the field. She served as an election judge, Room Mother, Girls' Booster Club president, PTA president and delivered Meals on Wheels. She was a 64-plus-year member of the Arcola United Methodist Church, where she served on several boards, taught Sunday School, helped with Bible School and was an active member of the Methodist Women and Ladies' Circle.

Wanda was involved with the activities of her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and loved spending time with them.

Memorials are suggested to the Arcola United Methodist Church, Alzheimer's Research, Cunningham Children's Home, and St. Jude's Research Hospital.

The family would like to thank Traditions Hospice and Amber Glen Assisted Living for the loving care given to our family.
