

Community Spotlight

$2,630 WAS DONATED to the Douglas County Animal Shelter in Tuscola as a memorial gift for Linda Burris. Family and friends gathered donations from over 100 individuals. From left to right, Spencer Hall, Bob Burris, Shirley Doherty, Sue Kremitzki, and Mike Jones. Tony Burris is not pictured. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

TERI MCCARTHY from Urbana takes a look at ceramic mugs created by Joana Drost. McCarthy and many others visited the Vault Art Gallery during their 10th-year anniversary celebration "Miracle on Main Street," on Aug. 26. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

GREG EVANS and his mother Pam Evans during the grand opening of Evan's Vacuums on Aug. 26. Evans repairs vacuums and sells them when they are refurbished. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

KATIE GRUBE, (right) and her mother Sally Grube smell scented candles and browse through other handmade products. The downtown Tuscola Vault Art Gallery allowed people to visit with local artists during their 10th-year anniversary celebration "Miracle on Main Street," on Aug. 26. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

A CROWD GATHERS at the Tuscola Vault Art Gallery during the 10th-year anniversary celebration "Miracle on Main Street," on Aug. 26. The Vault Gallery hosts a variety of artists who sell paintings, jewelry, and other art pieces. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

THE "HALOS" performed live at the 10th-year anniversary celebration "Miracle on Main Street," on Aug. 26. The band consists of Wendy Meyer on guitar, Abby Haughee on Mandolin, Michael Brown on Bass, Victoria Woolen-Danner on banjo and Karen Hart on the shaker. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

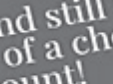

The family of Linda Burris would like to thank everyone who came to the visitation and funeral to show their respects. If you sent flowers, sent a card, cooked or brought food, said a prayer or generously donated to the Douglas County Animal Shelter, we thank you so much. Also thanks to Melanie Hoth and Ted Shearer for the beautiful service. We all miss her more than we can say.

TUSCOLA LADY WARRIORS slap hands with ALAH Knights after playing on Aug. 24. Tuscola lost 0-2. Photo by Sally McCarthy.

STUDENT PLUS CHECKING

- ✓ Earn  and still have the benefits of a checking account!
- ✓ 3.00% APY* UP TO $5,000
- ✓ NO MINIMUM BALANCE
- ✓ FREE INTERNET/MOBILE BANKING
- ✓ AVAILABLE TO CUSTOMERS 16-23 YEARS OF AGE
- ✓ E-STATEMENT REQUIRED
- ✓ INCLUDES DEBIT CARD

*APY=ANNUAL PERCENTAGE YIELD TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY CONTACT ONE OF OUR LOCATIONS TO LEARN MORE

NEWMAN, OGDEN, ROYAL, SIDNEY,
 ST. JOSEPH, TUSCOLA, VILLA GROVE
 WWW.LONGVIEWBANK.COM

