

Tuscola Key Club members put up flags on Sept. 11

Tuscola Key Club student members put flags. Left, Ella Mayfield and Kenna Clodfelder and right, Tessa Brooker and Jocelyn Ford. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

Catie Gibson (left) and Mindy Lin (right) put up small United States flags early in the morning on Sept. 11 at the Tuscola Cemetary. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

LIA PATTERSON AND NATHAN KLIE work together to put an American Flag on Sept. 11 at the Tuscola Cemetary. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

LIAM JONES fastens an American Flag with a zip-tie while Alex Line holds the flag in position. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

BECKY PATTON AND JOHN BECK with the Tuscola T.K. Martin VFW Auxiliary 10009 put up the service flags of United States military branches, including the Marine Corps, Army, United States Coast Guard, United States Navy and the Army National Guard. Patton said that the "Tiger Cage" will later be set up on Friday, Sept 15, on the corner of Prairie Street. A prisoners of war (POW) dinner table will also be set up at SavMor on Friday. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

John Beck and Becky Patton. Photo by Dominik Stallings.

