

In Loving Memory of my Dad

Cleo Smith

June 26, 1922 - Sept. 9, 2016

Time is free, but its priceless you can't own it, but you can use it, you can't keep it, but you can spend it. Once you've lost it, you can never get it back.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal. For those of you that knew my Dad, he was my best friend. Several of you remember some of the things that you tell me he told you, of which you tell me about yet. Of which he could see 30 or 40 years down the road, and what was going to happen to this country has happened and more to come, of which is not good.

It would be so disappointing to him to see now what he predicted would happen and has happened. Especially after being in the Navy and helping to keep this country Free, then and long after of which he did up to seven years ago. I love you Dad, I think of you and miss you every day, of which I deal with every day.

Your Son, your Boy, John & Special Friend Linda
