

People in Business

LCSWIL appoints Chapman as director, member engagement

Susan Chapman

The Leadership Council Southwestern Illinois has announced the appointment of Susan Chapman as the organization's new director of member engagement.

Chapman brings a wealth of experience from the nonprofit world and a deep understanding of the region to her new role. Chapman's professional journey began in the real estate industry in 1997, acquiring a State of Illinois Real Estate Managing Broker's license along with several industry designations. In 2015, she joined The Greater Gateway Association of REALTORS® to support her fellow REALTORS® and the real estate industry from a different perspective. Chapman earned her bachelor's degree in business administration from McKendree University in 2019.

Born and raised in Southwestern Illinois, Chapman is filling the Leadership Council role recently vacated by Andrea Beyer, whose departure took place in early June to pursue a position with her church.

Lyons, Hartwig lead United Way campaign

Marty Lyons

and market executive for Greater St. Louis, will serve as chair and co-chair, respectively, of its 2023 annual community campaign.

Marty Lyons became president and CEO of Ameren Corporation and a member of the Board of Directors on January 1, 2022. Lyons was previously chairman and president of Ameren Missouri, a position he held for two years after previously serving 18 years in a variety of positions within Ameren. Lyons was elected executive vice president and chief financial officer of Ameren Corporation in 2009 and president of Ameren Services in 2015.

Scott Hartwig

In addition, Lyons has been active within the utility industry having been the past chairman of the Finance Committee, Finance Executive Advisory Committee and Chief Accounting Officers Advisory Committee of the Edison Electric Institute. He is involved with various community organizations, which have included the Saint Louis Zoo, City Academy, St. Louis Regional Chamber, the Saint Louis University Chaifetz School of Business, and Washington University Olin School of Business.

Scott Hartwig joined Regions Bank in June 2014 and leads the Commercial Banking Team for the Midwest Area. Prior to assuming his current role, he held a number of positions including Unit President and Senior Relationship Manager at Enterprise Bank, and Trust and Senior Vice President and Client Manager at Bank of America.

For nine years, Hartwig served as a board member, officer, and secretary for Lutheran Senior Services and currently serves as an active member of the financing committee. He is currently an active board member on the Regional Business Council, Greater St. Louis, Inc. and the St. Louis Sports Commission Board.

Paddick promoted at Dieterich Bank

Shaina Paddick

Dieterich Bank recently promoted Shaina Paddick to area manager over Madison and Monroe Counties.

Paddick, who previously served as branch manager of Dieterich

Bank's Edwardsville Branch, brings over a decade of banking experience to her new position. She has managed the Edwardsville Branch since construction began on the brand-new facility in October 2020. As area manager, she will continue to focus on business development in the Edwardsville area as well as Waterloo and Columbia while developing team members.

Prior to moving back home to Illinois, Paddick had experience working in both retail and small business banking and lending across the country, including the Northeast and Hawaii. She also serves on the board for the Edwardsville Children's Museum, as a Merit Badge Counselor for Boy Scouts of America, and volunteers with her daughter at the Glen-Ed Food Pantry.

Judge Stiehl joins MM&R law firm

William D. Stiehl Jr.

The law firm of Mathis, Marifian & Richter, Ltd. (MM&R) recently announced that the Honorable William D. Stiehl, Jr., joined the firm as of counsel.

Judge 'Bill' Stiehl has served the legal community for over 40 years and has stepped up to serve the people of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit more than once. In 2018, following the death of Judge Robert LeChien and a recommendation by Illinois Supreme Court Chief Justice Lloyd A. Karmeier, Stiehl was temporarily appointed to fill a Resident Circuit Judge seat in the Twentieth Judicial Circuit. In 2020, following another Circuit Judge vacancy, Judge Stiehl returned to the bench. He was appointed as an at-large Circuit Judge in the Twentieth Judicial Circuit. Stiehl's appointment took effect on July 15, 2020, and concluded on Dec. 5, 2022.

Stiehl began his legal career in the St. Clair County Public Defender's Office where he served as a St. Clair County assistant public defender. He would then go on to serve as partner at law firms in Belleville for the next 33 years. In 2011, Stiehl would open the doors to his own firm, the Law Offices of William Stiehl Jr., where he handled both civil and criminal cases in state and federal courts.

Stiehl is also dedicated to serving the community. He was instrumental in founding Family Hospice in Belleville and served on the organization's original Board of Directors. Stiehl is also a member of the Illinois State Police Merit Board and the Board of Directors for the Greater East St. Louis Community Fund. Additionally, he has been a generous sponsor of Belleville's Art on the Square for many years.

Judge Stiehl's practice is principally focused in civil and criminal litigation in federal and state courts as well as education law. Stiehl will be in MM&R's Belleville, Ill., office.

Johns, Mulherin join SWIC Foundation board

Dr. Elizabeth Johns

Dr. Elizabeth Johns, DNP, AGACNP-BC, PM-BC, nurse practitioner and assistant professor of Nursing at Maryville University, has been named to the Southwestern Illinois College Foundation Board.

As a member of the board, Dr. Johns will support the Foundation's efforts to secure gifts for special educational and cultural activities that are not part of the college budget. In her new role, Dr. Johns brings decades of clinical and higher education experience to the Foundation Board. She has been serving her community in a myriad of ways through healthcare. Not only is Dr. Johns an assistant professor and coordinator of the Adult Gerontological Acute Care Nurse Practitioner Program at Maryville University in St. Louis, Mo., but she also currently practices as an Inpatient Oncology/Hematology nurse practitioner at Washington University Siteman Cancer Center in Shiloh.

Dr. Johns is an alumnus of SWIC, having completed two years of her undergraduate work before transferring to Deaconess College of Nursing to pursue her Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Dr. Johns received her Adult/Geriatric Acute Care nurse practitioner degree from St. Louis University and went on to Maryville University to receive her doctorate in Nursing Practice.

Thomas Mulherin, senior vice president in Investments with Stifel Financial, has also been named to the Southwestern Illinois College Foundation Board. As a member of the board, Mulherin will support the Foundation's efforts to secure gifts for special educational and cultural activities that are not part of the college budget.

Thomas Mulherin

Within his newly appointed role, Mulherin brings decades of financial experience to the Foundation Board. Not only is he currently the senior vice president in Investments with

Stifel Financial, but Mulherin has spent 25 years working specifically as a retail investment advisor. He specializes in helping clients achieve their financial goals through financial planning and portfolio management.

In addition to his financial career,

Mulherin furthered his experiences by serving on St. John's Lutheran School

Board of Education, along with being the president of said board. Currently,

Mulherin serves on the St. John's

Lutheran Church Estate Committee. Alongside serving on community boards, Mulherin is a supporter of the local charity, Joshua's Great Things, which raises money to fund pediatric brain cancer research as well as helping families with basic needs while taking care of a child in treatment.

Mulherin was born and raised in the Waterloo and Red Bud area, where he now resides with his wife and children.