

Rain! Rain! We Still Say Gay!!

Lake Worth Beach, FL - It may not have been the Palm Beach Pride that we all expected, but it was the Palm Beach Pride we all needed!

Despite Saturday's cancellation due to weather, Palm Beach Pride was a powerful success. Compass Community Center worked diligently with PBSO, and the Leisure Services and Public Works Departments of Lake Worth Beach to make Palm Beach Pride possible on Sunday.

"At Compass, we always put safety first, and the flooding in the park and forecasts of thunder and lightning on Saturday made it impossible for us to be able to create a space where safety was possible," explains Michael Riordan, Director of Media and Communications at Compass. "We understand how disappointing it must have been for our community, vendors, entertainers, volunteers and sponsors, but the overwhelmingly positive response we received only affirms the importance of hosting a weekend where everyone can be their authentic selves."

Compass was able to reschedule most of Saturday's performances to Sunday and extend the hours of the festival till

7pm. Guests who attended on Sunday were able to experience delicious food, fun activities, shopping, dancing and a sense of Pride that proves the LGBTQ+ Community in Palm Beach County continues to thrive.
