

Street Fair Offers Wide Variety For Visitors

Front street is lined with rows of merchandise booths during the annual Potato Days Street Fair. In the past there have been such items as Victorian pictures, hand puppets, wind instruments, floral designs, wooden items, caricatures, Native American crafts, fur and leather products, rugs and quilts, sterling silver jewelry, hand-made cards, clothing items, purses, jewelry and hand-made furniture.

With such an array of vendors entering the show it is impossible to list all items, but rest assured, there is something for everyone.

The Street Fair is held rain or shine, outdoors on Front Street. Show hours have been extended this year on Saturday as the parade route has been modified.

The new hours are Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

A potato gave a gift to his girlfriend. She said, "Aww, why are you so sweet?" he said, "It's just the way I yam."
