ARE YOU FREE?

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

I walked into a restroom in a store and a sign said "Are you free? Do you want freedom?" It was about human trafficking, which is a nice nasty way of saying, "Slavery."

President Abraham Lincoln in the Emancipation Proclamation freed the slaves and yet, with those know nothing wild knot heads that were tearing down and defacing historical monument,s they spray painted all over the one of the great Presidents - Abraham Lincoln. And speaking of that and yet we still got slavery in a way. It's all these low life pimps that put women in slavery.

Of course the new vice president says that she's gonna legalize prostitution to correct all the problems. Yea! That's what they said about prohibition. Legalizing whiskey and that created many more problems. They didn't care! They just wanted the tax money, so I thought.

While in sin you are in fact a slave to satan, and a slave to sin, and the only real freedom is in Christ Jesus. He will make you free indeed. Not half free, but wholly free.

So do you want real freedom? Then call on Him today! Call on Him as the word says, while He may be found. The sign said, "Are you free?" Jesus will give you a divine freedom that will feel like a ton of bricks has been lifted off you. Give it to Him! Don't wait! Tomorrow may be too late and in fact tomorrow never comes, because tomorrow will be today.

Jesus said in 1st Peter 5:7, "To cast your care upon Him for He careth for you. If you feel unloved, then find you an altar somewhere and get acquainted with the one that is love! Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior!!

Can you say amen?
