LUKEWARM

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

The Word of God says that He would rather us be hot or cold, rather than lukewarm. I have often wondered why the Lord said that and here's what I think. You see, if He had His rathers, then He would rather you be hot and on fire for Him. Right! Right! Right amen!

But since He gives us choice, He said that He would rather us be one or the other, rather than lukewarm and the reason why is just plain old common sense. If we are lukewarm then we will get in a lull and think we are ok in our lukewarm state and wind up losing our soul. That's why the Word says to be vigilant and wide awake and it also lets us know that we must constantly work out our salvation with fear and trembling. Meaning that we must pray hard every day and seek God, and His Word every day, and stay close to Him with our daily living or otherwise, we will wind up in a lukewarm state and drift off into a lost spiritual semi-comatose state.

The devil will rock us to sleep and rock us into hell, if we don't stay on our p's and q's. Amen!

Am I telling the truth or what? If you're hot then stay hot and you know how to do that. I just told you two or three lines up.

Now, If you are cold then you know it and you feel it and you wake up with that cold lost distant feeling. With a guilt trip. Knowing something just ain't right. So, a person cold stands a better chance of making things right than a lukewarm person that has lulled off into the devil's fantasy land. A cold person feels lots of guilt and conviction! So there you are!

God don't like no lukewarm and to prove it, then He said that He would spew you from out of His mouth. It don't get no plainer than that! Can you say amen?
