WHY ARE FOLKS SO SAD

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

Now it had gotten bad before that old virus, but during that and now after that, have you noticed that folks don't really laugh like they did in years past? I mean laughter that comes from their soul. I mean roaring laughter.

Years ago those old timers could tell jokes and it was funny bone tickling and rib shaking laughter that was contagious and now, seems like there is a blanket of sadness almost everywhere you look and folks try to hide it. I am probably one of the most friendliest traveling home missionary preachers around, and I spread cheer everywhere, but it seems like I am fighting a losing battle and folks that use to seem to laugh so loudly and so freely seem restrained by some evil spirit that has robbed them of the joy even of their salvation.

The Bible says that the joy of the Lord is our strength and folks seem like they are just so weak and run down by the spirit of satan. They have lost the joy of their heart and their testimony has almost faded from their lips. Folks, what in the name of all that is Holy is going on? Why are folks so sad? Oh I know you say no, but really look closer and you will see. They are hiding tears behind a fake smile. Their joyful testimony they once had is fading from their lips, and I am not being a naysayer, but something has gone terribly wrong. I understand what President Trump is trying to say and why folks hated him so badly. We can only guess and I understand when he says to make America great again meaning financially, but then on the other hand let's face it. Look around you and really see the depraved sadness that plagues this country and how they are faking it so.

When Trump was in there and the economy was good then you never seen any building going on to speak of and no homes, and now with this country teetering on the brink of disaster and yet, through some scheme of the democrat politicians and democrat rich folks, unknown money is coming from somewhere and with building material sky high. How can they afford to be building? It is a farce and something is going on below the surface that stinks. In the under belly of this country I like to call it.

Maybe it will all come out come wash day and the only way to make America great again is for folks to come to their knees and so, until then this blanket of underlying sadness bothers me, but until then I'm gonna keep on singing, until then with joy I'll carry on, until the day mine eyes behold that city (Heaven) until the day God calls me home.

Can you say amen?
