

GRINS & GIGGLES

He's 16 and always prepared to be the life of the troop. With his fellow scouts around him, there's a laff a minute filled with Jon's unique wit and candor. Keep up with these eager beaver's vision of a scout's life.

Leah Boys is a world class champion rodeo trick rider. At home in the saddle, a master of the shootin' iron and the bull whip. She has thrilled thousands all over the world with her daring stunts and is widely acclaimed as a superstar...but at home she's just mommy to her 4-legged kids. Laugh at the antics of home and travel life with Leah her loving pets Pekingese brothers Shing-Shang, Bojangles and Poodle Muzett. There's never a dull moment in this clever, heartwarming and funny strip. Every pet lover will relate to what goes on in this enjoyable feature.

He's a journeyman who explores the human condition giving examples of simple common sense from the words taken from the book of Proverbs. He could be called wise man, a noble man, a scholar, or even a preacherbut he is simply called Bro. Jones. Take a journey for yourself into this thought provoking feature. A refreshing new look into Proverbs. Hopefully he will leave you eager for more....

MEMES of the week

Got a funny meme? Send it in.

A GOD THAT'S REAL

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

Years ago when I was just a boy at our home church, we had a lady that was what we called "slow" back then. I don't know what they call it now. She was a little on the moody side sometimes, but she was just full of love. She loved the fine art - paintings, music and poetry. She would always ask me to sing, "My God is Real". It always made her face just beam with joy and it was an encouragement to me. I am still singing it in my ministry now.

So anyway, when I was only six or seven years old at the old Cedar Crossing Church of God, Brother Nathaniel Stokes was just a young man. He worked hard in the pulp woods and he would sing that song with such power, "My God is Real." He would always say jokingly that when he would sing it at the Uvalda Church of God, old Brother Johnson would start to cry and he didn't know if he was crying because he was being blessed, or crying because his singing was so bad. No! I know he was being blessed, because it blessed me and made a strong impact on me when I was just a little boy.

And I have been privileged to sing it at the prison I minister at with the Hispanics. They sing it in Spanish and then I sing it in English. How sweet it is!

Brother Stokes has gone on, but I just know he would be so proud. So see, the little lady at our church and Brother Stokes had a relationship with Jesus in a way that they knew He was real. They could feel Him in their soul. So many say that living for Jesus ain't about feelings. Well, it's about facts from the Holy Book! It's about Father and it's about feelings! My God is real, because I can feel Him in my soul. I'm not serving a dead god. As is mentioned in Deuteronomy 4:28, "A god of wood and stone," but rather I am serving the true and living God.

A God that's real is a God you can feel and when He saved, sanctified me and baptized me with the sweet Holy Ghost, then He gave me something real. Something I can feel! How about you?

Can you say amen?

Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

like us on facebook

@ Lanier County News