

GRINS & GIGGLES

He's 16 and always prepared to be the life of the troop. With his fellow scouts around him, there's a laff a minute filled with Jon's unique wit and candor. Keep up with these eager beaver's vision of a scout's life.

Leafed Out!

Leah Boys is a world class champion rodeo trick rider. At home in the saddle, a master of the shootin' iron and the bull whip. She has thrilled thousands all over the world with her daring stunts and is widely acclaimed as a superstar...but at home she's just mommy to her 4-legged kids. Laugh at the antics of home and travel life with Leah her loving pets Pekingese brothers Shing-Shang, Bojangles and Poodle Muzett. There's never a dull moment in this clever, heartwarming and funny strip. Every pet lover will relate to what goes on in this enjoyable feature.

He's a journeyman who explores the human condition giving examples of simple common sense from the words taken from the book of Proverbs. He could be called wise man, a noble man, a scholar, or even a preacherbut he is simply called Bro. Jones. Take a journey for yourself into this thought provoking feature. A refreshing new look into Proverbs. Hopefully he will leave you eager for more....

MEMES of the week Got a funny meme? Send it in.

SPIRITUAL SENSES

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

We don't think about it like this, because even though we live, walk and move by faith, and not by sight, we, as humans, like to feel, touch, smell, see, taste and hear. They say that if you lose one sense then the other four get stronger. God always has a way of giving us compensation. Amen!

But, if we had no senses, we would be almost lifeless, and we would not enjoy life. Well, we are body, spirit and soul, and believe it or not, the soul feels, can hear, can touch, can taste, can see and can smell. Without sensitive spiritual senses then the soul would be almost lifeless, and we would not enjoy our salvation.

I know many will disagree with that and, carnally speaking, they are right, and so many denominations want to remove the feeling aspect from a relationship with God, because then it gets into the disagreement of belief in the receiving of baptism of the Holy Ghost, with the evidence of speaking in other tongues. Many are too sophisticated and are ashamed of the Lord, and the Bible says He will be ashamed of us too!

Back in history most all the protestant churches were filled with the Spirit and shouted in the churches. The saintly old ladies with their bonnets on and with glory in their soul, they would get happy, because back then there was no heady high mindedness in most churches. All the rituals and formalities back then was with the Catholic and Episcopal Churches. Now most all denominations have adapted all of that.

Now, getting back to our spiritual senses, when we understand that like the trinity, we are three separate parts that make up one. Our soul is part of the human trinity and is a separate entity of the body. So like the body has natural physical senses, then the soul has spiritual senses. Search your Bible and you will see this to be true. In several scriptures it talks about tasting the Lord for He is good. Of course, this is a spiritual metaphor, meaning that we don't literally taste the Lord like we do fried chicken, but spiritually the soul tastes the Lord and knows that He is good. Real good! God is good all the time! Amen!

Then the Word speaks of Jesus being a sweet smelling Savior. Not just speaking of when He was on earth, but now. He is omnipresent and His spirit can be with us and our soul knows that He is a sweet smelling savior and scriptures bear out that we can hear Him spiritually and we can touch Him spiritually and see Him through the windows of our soul.

Now, all this cannot be explained with the carnal mind scientifically or through some psychological method or study. This cannot really be explained. It must be experienced! Through our soul, we can taste, smell, touch, see and hear our savior Jesus Christ.

Can you say amen?

like us on facebook®
@ Lanier County News

