NO GREATER LOVE

By Gary Toole, The Christian Way Ministries

I want to tell you a story about my grandmother Toole. She was carrying my daddy and she knew before he was born that he was called of God. The Lord revealed that to her. She became an anemic. Bad low blood and she was nearly dead, so grandpa got her to the hospital and the doctor said that she would die trying to have this baby. So even though abortion was illegal back then, he whispered to grandpa and said that he could get rid of the baby so Annie could live.

My grandma was weak, but she had ears like a deer, and she heard the doctor and she cried out, "Let me die, but don't take my baby!" Six months later John Paul Toole was born a healthy baby boy at 8 pounds 5 ounces just kicking and screaming. You see grandma knew because God told her and He makes no mistakes. The devil was trying to have him killed just like he tried to get Jesus killed when He was a baby.

My father got saved at five years old, and was called to preach at age 15, and he started pasturing in 1950, and did until he retired, but he preached till his dying day. As he lay dying all the family was packed in that hospital room, and we were singing my dad on over to glory, and his life was still a testimony and a witness even as he left this world.

I walked out of the hospital room and a nurse approached and said, "Are you Mr. Toole's son?" I said, "Yes!" She continued, "Sir, I'm not a Christian, but as you are were singing, it sounded like a band of angels, and there was such a sweet spirit of the Lord, and it was a spiritual manifestation and confirmation of my dad's life."

I continued, "Young lady if you are not saved then accept Jesus today and you too can have that sweet peace and love of Jesus."

My dad was witnessing beyond death through his life. He left behind 67 grands and great grands, 6 preachers, 1 Christian writer, 1 Bible teacher, 2 prison ministers, 2 church pianists, 2 choir leaders, 3 Sunday school teachers, 2 youth ministers and most all sing in the choir and work in churches all over Georgia in some capacity.

You see God knew, the devil knew, and my grandma knew, and she was willing to lay down her life for her baby, while in this day and time they order abortions like ordering a hamburger, and God is not pleased. God is not happy.

The word says in John 15:13, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." And I believe that a mother's love should be even greater than that. The only love greater than a real mother's love is God's love. Can you say amen?
