Kavein Taylor plans to attend APSU to study engineering. Taylor enjoyed football and homecoming and named Mr. Willis as his favorite teacher. Machine shop was listed as his favorite class, while his favorite memory was the first playoff game. Taylor said the greatest lesson he learned was how to operate machinery and encouraged younger students to stay focused and determined.

Maka'Ya Thomas plans to attend Jackson State to study nursing after graduation. Thomas participated in cheer and named Coach Vonner as her favorite teacher. Mobile learning was her favorite class because of the encouragement and positivity provided during difficult days. Field day was identified as her favorite memory. Thomas said the greatest lesson she learned was knowing when to stay quiet and leave behind negativity moving forward.

Adrianna Wallick plans to attend the University of Memphis after graduation. Walker enjoyed cheerleading and named Coach Ingram as her favorite teacher. Personal finance was her favorite class. Cheerleading was listed as her favorite memory. Walker said the greatest lesson she learned was that mistakes are acceptable as long as a person keeps moving forward and encouraged future students to enjoy every moment and make the best of it.

Cy'Linthia Wedley plans to attend Tennessee State University and major in nursing. Wedley participated in basketball and FFA and named Coach Vonner as her favorite teacher. U.S. history was her favorite class because of the engaging teaching style and enjoyable classroom atmosphere. Her favorite memory was being recognized as the only senior girl in the athletic department for 2026. Wedley said the greatest lesson she learned was not to take anything for granted and to make as many memories as possible. Wedley encouraged future students to give their best effort and strive to become productive and successful individuals.
