After a shutout loss to defending state champ Lanier County, the Clinch County Diamond Panthers bounced back with two resounding wins last week.

Tuesday at home, Lee Douglas' Panthers lost 10-0 to Lanier, banging out six hits but leaving eight on base. They made up for it at the plate Thursday and Friday – ripping Turner County 16-1 Thursday and Atkinson County 18-7 Friday.

Tuesday at Cecil Barber Field vs. the Bulldogs, the visitors scored three in the second inning, and two more in the third, adding five in the seventh.

The Panthers went with a flurry of pitchers, including Weston Bennett, Remington Wheeler, Hunter Henderson, Joshua Delk and Jake King.

At the plate, King was hot, going 3-for-3, while Bennett, Wheeler and Joshua Delk all had hits.

The Panthers only had two more hits Thursday than Tuesday, but produced 16 more runs.

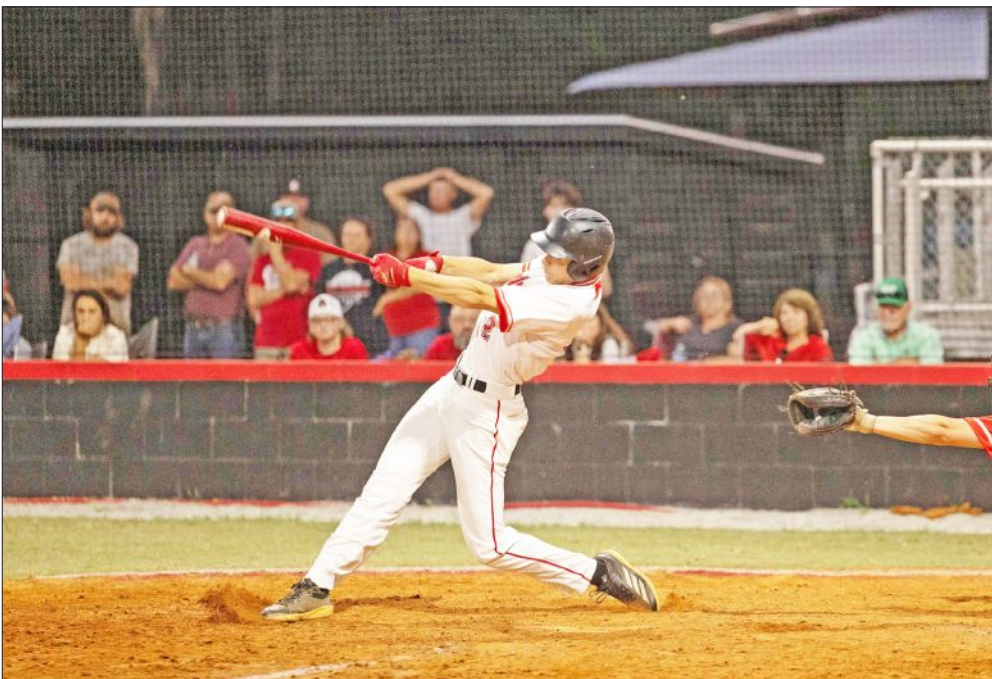

Turner and Clinch were tied 1-1 after the first inning. Then Clinch scored three in the second, four in the third, and eight runs in the fourth. Leading the way was King, Bennett and Rayce Godfrey, with two hits apiece, while Wheeler had a hit, and Dane Brown had a triple.

Bo Delk got the win on the hill, striking out seven and allowing one hit over four innings.

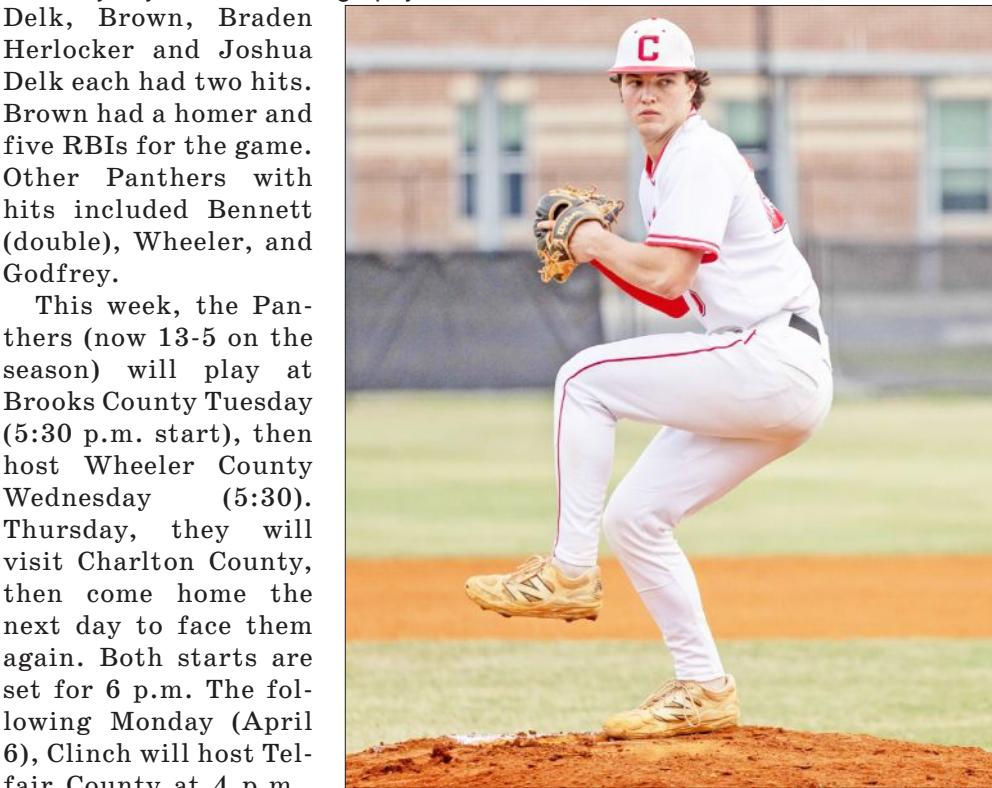

A vicious 12-run fourth inning proved to be the difference against Atkinson County Friday at Cecil Barber Field. The game was tied 6-6 going into the fourth, where the Panthers exploded to take control of the contest.

Tate Denmark started on the mound for Clinch, going 2 2/3 innings, with King finishing the last 2 1/3.
