

Lt. Governor visits Homerville

Georgia's Lt. Governor, Burt Jones, was in Homerville Saturday for a campaign stop. Jones is running to replace Brian Kemp as governor. He had a stop on a swing through South Georgia at Steve and Lisa Conner's home Saturday. Pictured at left, Jones speaks to the crowd at the Conner house. Earlier in the day, Jones made campaign stops at Perry, Tifton, and Moultrie.

“Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.”
Jeremiah 29:12-13 (NIV)

The Lasting Power of Prayer

We may have varied thoughts on what prayer means to us. We may have a routine for prayer, or in other instances, we may tend to pray as we feel it is necessitated. Importantly, we should always keep in mind that much prayer is of a strongly personal nature. While a prayer routine can certainly be effective, we should always attempt to maintain real meaning in our requests for intercession from God. If we find ourselves tending to pray only when we think it is necessary, we should attempt to reflect on how we can grow closer to God through prayer in a more regular capacity. In these ways, we can realize the lasting power of prayer in our own lives, and find respite in the difficulties of life as we seek a deeper connection with God.
