

National Law Enforcement Day

Our deputies were surprised with some awesome cookies from Lancaster Grove Senior Living in honor of National Law Enforcement Day, and they were very much enjoyed. We really appreciate all of the love and support these wonderful individuals brought to our LCSO family. We'd also like to give a special thank you to Alison Graves, Resident Experience Director, for coordinating this thoughtful gesture and helping bring such a meaningful moment to life. Your kindness and appreciation mean so much to us all.

This is what happens when Lancaster County and cold water come together! The 2026 Walnut Creek Polar Plunge is coming up, and now's the perfect time to:
 ** Join a team
 ** Start your own team
 ** Plunge solo like a champ
 ** Or support the cause by donating if you can't make it in person
 Whether you're plunging with friends, co-workers, family, or flying solo, it's all about having fun while supporting Special Olympics South Carolina! So be honest... do you like to have fun? If the answer is yes, grab your team, pick a costume, and get ready to make a splash....literally!

 ** Sign up or donate here: give.classy.org/2026Walnut-Creek-Ploar-Plunge
 Let's make this year's plunge bigger, bolder, and colder than ever!
