

Kershaw Chamber of Commerce Annual Awards 2026

Above: The custom Ice sculpture centerpiece was a popular feature at the Kershaw Chamber of Commerce's annual Banquet on March 31st at the Kershaw Country Club.

Above: Kenny Catoe(left) was presented with the Kershaw Citizen of the Year award by Tommy Baker. Catoe is a long time volunteer with KARE and was cited for his dedication to the organization and willingness to help with a variety of Tasks.

Below: Parker and Gabby Brewer of Brewer's Blooms were presented the "Young Entrepreneurs of Kershaw" award by Amy Eubanks. The young couple recently opened their floral business Brewer's Blooms, proving arrangements and bouquets.

Below: Spencer Briggs presented Angie Brewer and Wanda Gardner with the Business of the Year Award for their efforts to continue the legacy of their father at Williams Financial. Joe Williams opened the business April 1st of 1959.

Below: Joey Byrd of Haile Gold Mine was presented with the John T. Stevens Community Impact Award by Beverly Adams. Byrd, who serves as Community Development Senior Advisor for the mine, credited former Haile Gold Mine president David Thomas as an inspiration for his community involvement.

Celebrating the Success of Our Community's Small Businesses!

It is a pleasure to be the voice of our local small business community in Columbia.

The 2026-27 Kershaw Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors includes Beverly Adams, Harvey Truesdale as Treasurer, Kelley Boone as President, Deeda Coffey as Secretary, Sheila Hinson as Vice President, Amy Eubanks and Spencer Briggs

Congratulations to our friends and neighbors of the Kershaw Chamber of Commerce on your recognition by the community you serve.

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."
 Aristotle

Congratulations to This Year's Chamber Winners

Thank you for your dedication to our community and for the role you play in making our county a great place to live and work. Your contributions are truly appreciated.
