

Give me three words

... to describe your high school years

Every senior is given the opportunity to participate in The Progressor-Times' special graduation publication by answering a senior questionnaire. The questions give them the opportunity to express their interests and plans for the future. This year 36 graduates responded out of the 60 in Carey High School's Class of 2026.

We asked Carey's graduates what three words best described their high school years. Words like "memorable," "fun" and "stressful" appeared the most often in their responses, followed by "transformative," "challenging" and "fast."

"Inspiring, transformative, and challenging," said Jazmin Zink.

Elly Zimmerly said, "Memorable, exciting, accomplished." "Draining, isolating, predictable," said Emily Weber.

Savannah Walton listed, "Transformative, challenging, empowering."

"Chaotic, memorable, fast," Christine Walton said.

Logan Trausch said, "Went extremely fast."

"Challenging, eye-opening, and memorable," said Tylinn Stoll.

"Fun, memorable, stressful," Eli Steen listed.

Audrey Simons said, "My high school years were long, stressful and fun."

Derreck Shulaw said, "Interesting, hard, boring."

"Long, tired, laughter," Landon Roberts said.

"Fast-paced, stressful, memorable," said Dawsyn Ritter.

Mason Rickle said, "Fun, adoratorios, and exciting."

"Chaotic, interesting, and transformative," said Trinity Reinhart.

"Stress. Fun? Fun," Vinny Nickerson said.

"New, unsuspecting, interesting," said Brayton Myers.

Audrey Motter answered, "Unpredictable, disciplined, transformative."

Gracie Luhring said, "Focused, dedicated, active."

"Stressful, memorable, fast," said Abby Kurtz.

"Fun, quick, and busy," Kensey Korody listed.

"Transformative, dynamic, educational," said Sophia Klein.

"Memorable, growth, eventful," Lane Hill said.

Presley Hartley said, "Stressful, eventful, demanding."

Madison Hall's three words were "eventful, stressful, memorable."

Kaylee Hall said, "Memorable, social, and stressful."

"Memorable, nostalgic, short," said Blake Hall.

Caidence Fleece said, "Fun, exciting, and difficult."

"Cool, awesome, memorable," said Adam Collet.

"Time with friends," Jessica Chamberlain said.

Emily Brodman said, "Fun, fast, busy."

"Memorable, enlightening, laughter" were Autumn Bouillon's words.

Austin Boes said, "Boring, interesting, tiring."

"Short, memorable, experience," according to Miley Bloom.

"Memorable, chaotic, formative," Lydia Black said.

"Busy, fun, chaotic," said Carter Bame.

Mineral Processing

is proud to present the 2026 Carey High School Class Officers

Savannah Walton
Class president

Aubrey Niederkohr
Class Representative

Elly Zimmerly
Class Representative

Harper Brooks
Class Representative

Audrey Motter
Class Representative

Congratulations
GRADUATES!
Best of luck in your future endeavors!