

Kensey Korody said, "I plan to get my cosmetology license by graduation and go into work at a salon. I plan to one day have my own salon/work on my own. I plan on getting married after moving out in a few years. I would like to travel to anywhere tropical before having kids. I would like to have three kids and settle down on the crazy things to watch them grow day by day. I can't wait for what the future holds and the memories yet to be made!"

"My plans are either to work at National here in Carey or just to get into Ball Metals with my dad in Findlay," Brayton Myers said.

"I'm pursuing a degree in agriscience education, starting at Ohio State ATI and completing my bachelor's at the Columbus campus. After graduation, I hope to travel a little bit, earn my master's, and eventually relocate outside of Ohio to further develop my career," Audrey Motter said.

Vinny Nickerson said, "I'm going to Bowling Green State University to study music education and eventually become a band director/ music teacher."

"After high school I am planning to go to University of Toledo and study radiation therapy," said Trinity Reinhart.

"I plan on attending college and getting a job," Mason Rickle said.

Dawsyn Ritter said, "I plan to go to Owen's Community College for nursing."

"My plans are to attend

Hobart Welding Institute after school and then go to work," Landon Roberts said.

Derreck Shulaw's career aspirations are to work at a high voltage substation.

"My dream is to become a salon owner/hairstylist," said Audrey Simons. "My plan to achieve that is by enrolling in the cosmetology program at Millstream Career Center, then taking state boards."

"My plans are to go into the agricultural workforce," Eli Steen said.

"My plans for the future are to go to school to become a certified dental assistant," said Tylinn Stoll.

Logan Trausch said, "My plans for the future are to save up and buy lots of hunting land."

"I plan to attend Bowling Green State University for a business major and eventually open a bakery," said Christine Walton.

Savannah Walton said, "After high school, I plan to attend The Ohio State University at Marion to major in psychology. I will be pursuing this major in order to become a children's grief counselor."

"After graduation I plan to attend Wright State University - Lake Campus and pursue a degree in agricultural sciences," Emily Weber answered.

"I am going to the University of Cincinnati to get my bachelor's degree in advanced medical imaging technology to become an MRI technologist," said Elly Zimmerly.

"I am going to Ohio Northern University and will be majoring in business," Jazmin Zink said. "I want to open my own bakery and coffee shop in the future. I am committed to working towards my dreams with determination and perseverance, even when faced with challenges."

"I plan to go to college for four years to major in nursing, and then go to CRNA school after I obtain work experience. I want to live outside of Ohio in the future," said Sophia Klein.

Abby Kurtz plans to study graphic design at Bluffton University.

"I plan to go straight into a salon and start working to gain clientele after I get my license in cosmetology," said Gracie Luhning. "I would love to have my own salon one day and have people be working under me."

"I will be attending Ohio University for business and also currently in flight training to become a professional pilot. I would also like to travel as much as possible early in life," Lane Hill said.

Madison Hall wants to "attend either Ohio State or Western Michigan for aviation."

Presley Hartley will attend college to double major in criminal justice and psychology.

Blake Hall answered, "Job. Move in with my friend."

