

(Continued from page 19)

Gabriel Kenneth Brown Jackson of Grandview is the son of Michelle Brown and Jeff Hart and Jason Jackson. He participated in 4-H Club for 10 years, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, track and field, and football for four, and wrestling for two. His football distinctions include IFCA Senior All-State, 4A Regional Champions (serving as team captain), PAC All-Conference, ESPN Owensboro All-District, Courier & Press All Southwest Indiana in 2025 and 2024, IFCA Region 9 All-State, IFCA 3A All-State, PAC All-Conference, 3A State Champions (serving as team captain), 3A state runners up, and PAC All-Conference. Jackson has had 11 offers in this sport. In track, he is a three-year letterman and a team conference champion. In addition, Jackson is a Lilly Endowment Scholarship winner and Southern Indiana Chapter of National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete. After graduation, Jackson plans to attend the University of Missouri Science and Technology to further his academic and athletic career.

Rebecca Jackson is the daughter of Kyle and Tonya Jackson of Buffaloville. She participated in concert, pep, and marching bands all four years of high school. She was a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years, becoming that group's leader as a senior. Jackson also wrestled for five years, golfed for three, and ran track for two. Her accomplishments include being FCA leader and varsity in band, golf, and wrestling. She was also named Miss Chrisney 2025. After graduation, Jackson plans to attend Murray State University for animal science.

William Jordan is the son of Paul and Beth Jordan of Santa Claus. He participated in cross country and track for four years and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for three. Jordan lettered four times in cross country. After graduation, he plans to attend college.

Kent Kaetzel of Mariah Hill is the son of Jeff and Marcia Kaetzel. He was a member of Future Farmers of America for four years. Kaetzel was also involved in Skills USA, cross country, and Automotive Club for three years. His accomplishments include being in the top 10% of his class from freshman through junior years and being full ASE certified. After graduation, Kaetzel plans to work full time as a diesel and heavy truck technician.

Elijah Keith is the son of Christopher and Nikole Keith of Chrisney. He was a member of Chess Club for three years. After graduation, Keith plans to join the workforce.

Vanesa Kellems is the daughter of Jesse and Ashley Kellems of St. Meinrad. She participated in choir, Book Club, and Natural Helpers for four years, theatre for three, and Big Brothers Big Sisters for two. Her accomplishments include earning a gold rating in ISSMA State Solo, being named Top Student in theatre and choir, and being a two-time Appelly Publishing Rising Star. After graduation, Kellems plans to attend Vincennes University to earn a business certificate before transferring to the University of Southern Indiana to study accounting.

Levi Keller is the son of Matt and Jenny Keller of Evanston. He participated in Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club throughout high school and golf and swimming for three years. His accomplishments include lettering in golf and swimming. After graduation, Keller plans to join the workforce and become a union electrician.

Quinn Keller is the daughter of Nicholas and Tammy Keller of Mariah Hill. She participated in marching band for five years, track and field for six, Big Brothers Big Sisters for two, and Beta Club for one. Keller is also a 10-year member of 4-H Club. Her accomplishments include earning the Maria Goretti Community Service Award and being listed on the honor roll. After graduation, Keller plans to attend Western Kentucky University to major in photography.

Lilly Kessens of Santa Claus is the daughter of Brad Kessens and Lacy Oeding. She participated in swimming for six years, Pep Club for two, and Chess Club for one. She earned the Top Geometry Student Award and second place for Art III in an art show. She also lettered in swimming twice and earned an Academic Scholar Athlete Award. After graduation, Kessens plans to attend college for radiology.

Carsten King is the son of Chris King and Joe and Renae Harper. She participated in track and field, Future Farmers of America, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and basketball for two. Her accomplishments include being a four-time 100-meter relay school record holder, two-time track and field sectional champion, PAC Track Conference Champion, two-time regional qualifier in track, and being named class clown. After graduation, King plans to run collegiate track and field and study criminal justice to pursue a career as a conservation officer.

Masyn LaBolle of Santa Claus is the daughter of Carrie Johnson and the late Brian LaBolle. She participated in Educators Rising for two years and Heritage Hills Dance Marathon Executive Committee and National Beta Club for four. After graduation, LaBolle plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in elementary and special education.

Alberto Lara is the son of Jose and Paulina Lara of Dale. He participated in soccer for three years and Chess Club for two. After graduation, Lara plans to join the Army National Guard as a crew member or mechanic.

Kyle Li is the son of Lynn Ye and Hui Li of Santa Claus. He participated in track and field for three years, spell bowl for two, and Jazz Club for one. His accomplishments include earning the College Board Small Town Award for PSAT. After graduation, Li plans to attend Purdue University to earn a bachelor's degree in engineering.

Addyson Lindsey of Santa Claus is the daughter of Kevin and Jennifer Lindsey. She participated in Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years, Big Brother Big Sister and volleyball for two, and softball and Card Club for one. After graduation, Lindsey plans to attend cosmetology school at Salon Professional Academy.

Kenzie Litherland of Cannelton is the daughter of Brittany and Andrew White and Jeremy Litherland. They participated in Poetry Club and theater. After graduation, Litherland plans to join the workforce.

Jazmyne Little is the daughter of Jason and Toni Little of Santa Claus. She participated in Teens Being Helpful for four years and swimming for three. Little has also worked with the Carter Volunteer Fire Department for three years. Her accomplishments include being named 2026 District 18's Miss Flame. Little will become a paramedic in the fall.

Lexi Lubbehusen is the daughter of Luke and the late Leah Lubbehusen of Dale. She participated in varsity volleyball, varsity softball, Natural Helpers, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and Big Brothers Big Sisters for two. Her accomplishments include earning the Elisa and Brian Memorial Scholarship, Gene and Christina Schwindel Scholarship, Narel and Hazel Conner Scholarship, and Academic Distinction Scholarship. After graduation, Lubbehusen plans to attend Indiana State University to major in applied medicine and later earn her master's degree in occupational therapy.

Peyton Martin of Gentryville is the son of Rodney and Laura Martin. He participated in track and field for five years, football for eight, and Patriot Strength for four. His football career includes being a three-time sectional champion, three-time regional champion, two-time semi-state champion, as well as a state runner up, state champion, and All-Conference. In track, Martin is a three-time shot put sectional champion, one-time disc sectional champion, school record holder in shot and disc, a four-time High Point field event winner, and also earned the Leadership Award. In addition, he remained on the honor roll throughout high school with a GPA of at least 3.8 and completed a co-op program as a senior. After graduation, Martin plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to study finance or go to a trade school to become an electrician.

Nick Martinez of Gentryville is the son of Elder Martinez. He participated in soccer, Chess Club, wrestling, and Summer RE. His varsity soccer career spanned all four years of high school. After graduation, Martinez plans to join the National Guard to become a crew member and then go to a trade school to become an HVAC technician.

Jason Marvin is the son of Chris and Amber Marvin of Chrisney. He participated in Educators Rising and jazz band for one year, marching band for four years, and Feed My Starving Children for two. After graduation, Marvin plans to attend Ball State majoring in psychology and philosophy to earn a master's degree in psychology and become a therapist.

Paige Mattingly of Santa Claus is the daughter of Bill Mattingly and Lindsey and Tom Schneider. She participated in Educators Rising and Patriot Renaissance. Mattingly was also named Most Improved in choir. After graduation, she plans to attend Western Kentucky University to earn a bachelor's degree in elementary education.

Cullen McCoy of Santa Claus is the son of Monte and Natalie McCoy. After graduation, he plans to work at OFS for the summer then start an apprenticeship for the ironworkers union, among other possibilities.

Nathaniel McDowell of Dale is the son of Robert and Sandy McDowell and Lynn McDowell. He participated in Chess Club for four years, track for three, and drama, choir, and tennis for two. His accomplishments include making varsity for pole-vault. After graduation, McDowell plans to intern at a tech company and then attend college for software engineering.

River Miles is the son of Christina Will of Santa Claus. He participated in swimming and Chess Club for five years and track for three. He was named Most Improved Swimmer as a sophomore and senior. After graduation, Miles plans to earn a degree in engineering and business administration.

Grace Mix is the daughter of Adam and Dawn Mix of Dale. She participated in cheerleading and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years, Beta Club for three, and Big Brothers Big Sisters for two. Mix is also a 10-year 4-H Club member. She was in the top 10% of her class as a freshman and sophomore and earned the Rural and Small Town Recognition Award. After graduation, she plans to attend Indiana University to major in interior architecture and design.

(Continued on page 21)