

(Continued from page 17)

Reagan Michelle Bumm is the daughter of Aaron and Amy Bumm of Evanston. She participated in volleyball and track and field for four years, Pep Club for two, and Card Club for one. She earned the All-Academic Award in volleyball, made honor roll and Patriot Renaissance throughout high school, lettered four times in track and field, lettered twice in volleyball, earned the Math Award as a freshman and the Field Highest Point Award as a sophomore and junior, and is listed in the College Board National Recognition Program. Bumm plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to study elementary education.

Brayden Buntin of Santa Claus is the son of Tara Leiberling and Devin Newton. He was a three year member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes and played football for two. After graduation, Buntin plans to join the workforce.

Colten Buntin is the son of Jared and Angela Buntin of Santa Claus. He played baseball for four years and football as a sophomore. Buntin also lettered in baseball four times. After graduation, he plans to work with Lush Lawn Care until he joins the union to become an electrician.

Adalyn Grace Canen is the daughter of Justin and Kathy Canen of Mariah Hill. She played soccer for four years and was a member of the diving team, softball team, Pep Club, and Card Club for one. Canen also served as baseball manager for two years. Her accomplishments include earning PAC Academic, All Academic, Second All Conference, and a varsity letter in soccer. She also demonstrated teamwork, attained leadership roles, and completed many art and engineering projects. After graduation, Canen plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in graphic design with a minor in advertising.

Carly Jo Cassidy is the daughter of James and Kelly Cassidy of Evanston. She participated in Drama Club for nine years, Student Council for seven, Beta Club and track and field for four years, and basketball for three. Cassidy also served as manager for track and field and basketball teams. Her accomplishments include earning a varsity letter in basketball and cheerleading and four varsity letters in both track and field and drama. Cassidy also ranked third in Beta Club for U.S. history, second in show choir, and first in small group. She earned the Patriot Award for leadership. After graduation, Cassidy plans to attend Indiana University to earn a bachelor's degree in sports management in the hope of becoming a sports data analyst.

Colt Rye Caswell is the son of Doug and Stefanie Caswell of Gentryville. He was a member of National Beta Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and the tennis team for four years and basketball for two. Caswell was in the top 10% of his class as a senior and earned an academic honors diploma. After graduation, he plans to attend Owensboro Technical or University of Southern Indiana to become a radiology technician.

Brooklyn Cohoon is the daughter of Ben and Jennifer Cohoon of Chrisney. She was a member of concert/marching band throughout high school. Cohoon's accomplishments include winning state for marching band. After graduation, she plans to begin working at Gaesser Electric.

Haylee Jo Coleman is the daughter of Grant and Michelle Coleman of Santa Claus. She was a member of the basketball, cross country, track and field teams, Natural Helpers, National Beta Club, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Haylee has been the top 10% of her class throughout high school, lettered in basketball twice, cross country and rack and field three times, and earned Cross Country All-State First Team as a senior, Cross Country Academic All-State Honorable Mention as a junior, Track and Field Academic All-State Honorable Mention as a junior, Girls Basketball Academic All-State Honorable Mention as a senior, and Academic All Conference Cross Country and Basketball as a senior. Coleman was named Student of the Year in biomedical science and Algebra and also earned the ISU President's Scholarship. After graduation, she plans to attend Indiana State to study kinesiology with a minor in massage therapy to become a physical therapist.

Coyt Justis Collett is the son of Jud and Karen Collett of Santa Claus. He played golf for four years and archery for three. After graduation, Collett plans to join the Indiana National Guard and attend lineman school afterwards.

Trenton Collins is the son of Jeff and Bessie Collins of Evanston. He participated in football for four years and track and field for three. His accomplishments include being a football state champion and track and field sectional champion. After graduation, Collins plans to work at Cleveland Cliffs.

Olivia Cook is the daughter of Joe and Lisa Cook of Santa Claus. She played in soccer, and was a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Pep Club, and National Beta Club for four years. Cook also served on the Student Council for three years. She was a Spencer County Lilly Endowment Scholarship Finalist, a top 10% student throughout high school, Top Team Player in soccer, First Team All-District, First Team All-Conference, Second Team All Conference, and earned a Patriot Award. She also earned Academic All State in soccer, Academic All Conference in soccer, was a Beta Club Recycled Art Divisions I and II Champion, and earning a Spanish I Award. After graduation, Cook plans to attend Purdue University and earn a degree in chemical engineering, then begin a career as a lab technician with a focus on pharmaceutical technology.

Hayden Coop of Santa Claus is the son of Johnnie and Stephanie Coop. He participated in football, Automotive Club, Natural Helpers, and Riley's Dance Marathon for four years. His accomplishments include being a 3A Football State Runner Up, 3A Football State Champion, Skills USA State Champion in power equipment technology, Natural Helpers, and a 4A Football Regional Championship. After graduation, he plans to continue to grow his business in Spencer County.

Delaney Cox of Santa Claus is the daughter of Craig and Amy Cox. She played soccer for four years, wrestling for two, and was on the swim team and Student Council for one year. Her accomplishments include earning the Academic All-Conference Scholar Athlete Award in soccer and wrestling, honor roll, a varsity letter, and the David L. Rice Merit Scholarship. After graduation, Cox plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in nursing and minor in sonography.

Emerson Lynn Cox of Santa Claus is the daughter of Craig and Amy Cox. She participated in track and field, soccer, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Beta Club, and was a class officer for four years. She was listed on the honor roll, is in the top 10% of her class, lettered in soccer and track, and earned Academic All-State and Academic All-Conference in soccer. Cox also earned several Beta Club awards. These include third place in freshman problem solving, first place in 10th grade science, first place in Division I quilling, second place in 11th grade science, and second place in musicology. After graduation, she plans to attend Indiana State University to major in kinesiology and pursue a career in occupational therapy.

Ava Faye Cronin of Troy is the daughter of Lane and Vanessa Hempfling. She participated in swimming from sixth through 10th grade and has been a member of the National Society of High School Scholars since sophomore year. After graduation, Cronin plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to pursue a bachelor's degree in diagnostic medical sonography.

Oscar Cruz-Islas is the son of Oscar Cruz and Arecelis Islas of Lamar. After graduation, he plans to work full time and engage in sports.

AnEllice Darling is the daughter of Jonathan and Kendra Darling of Santa Claus.

She wrestled for two years, participated in theater for three, and dance team for one. Her accomplishments include lettering in dance and wrestling. After graduation, Darling plans to attend The Salon Professional Academy in Evansville to earn her cosmetology license.

Evan Andrew Decker of Huntingburg is the son of Drew and Megan Decker. He was a member of Business Professionals of America, on the spell bowl team for two years, academic bowl team for three, and Chess Club and USI Science Bowl Team for one. His accomplishments include being in the top 10 percent of his class throughout high school, ranking first and eighth for BPA State Conference, being an IASP Academic All-Star, and earning the First-Generation Recognition Award and Rural and Small-Town Recognition Award. After graduation, Decker plans to attend Purdue University.

Dorian Dillion-Lee of Chrisney is the son of Malissa Dillion and Tanner Lee. He participated in swim team, Business Professionals of America, Chess Club, academic bowl, spell bowl, and Patriot Academy. His accomplishments include being a BPA state contender and Patriot Academy member. After graduation, Dorian plans to attend Gaston College for gunsmithing.

J. Berke Eisenhauer is the son of Jaima and Dan Eisenhauer of Gentryville. He played soccer and wrestled for four years, travel soccer for three, and served as manager of the baseball team as a senior. He earned a varsity letter in both wrestling and soccer four times, being a two-time wrestling sectional champion, two-time wrestling regional runner up, two time conference champion in wrestling, four-time semi-state qualifier in wrestling, state runner up in wrestling, Academic All-Conference in soccer and wrestling as a junior and senior, Academic All-State in soccer and wrestling as a junior and senior, being a Top Team Player in soccer, All-State Honorable Mention in soccer, 2025 Soccer Conference Sectional Regional Champion, and also served as team captain in wrestling. After graduation, Eisenhauer plans to attend Purdue University to major in aeronautical engineering while participating in Air Force ROTC to become a pilot.

Haley Ann Fisher is the daughter of Adam and Ashley Fisher of New Boston. She participated in softball and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and St. John's Lutheran Church Youth Group for eight. Her accomplishments include making pocket athletic conference and second team in softball. After graduation, Fisher plans to attend Olney Central College to study radiology and play softball.

(Continued on page 19)