

(Continued from page 18)

Paige Elizabeth Flannagan is the daughter of Ryan and Kathy Flannagan of Santa Claus. She participated in swim and dive team for 11 years, volleyball for seven, track and field for five, Beta Club for four, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for three. She was named Most Improved in swimming, being a PAC champion in swim team as a senior, placing second in 2D painting at the State Beta Competition as a senior, earning four varsity letters in swim, two varsity letters in track and field, Academic All-State in swim team, earning National Merit Consideration, maintaining perfect attendance from sophomore through senior year, and ranking third in the USI Foreign Language Competition as a senior. After graduation, Flannagan plans to attend the Kelley School of Business and the Luddy School of Informatics at Indiana University to double major in finance and computer science.

Alicia Dawn Fortune is the daughter of Brian and Sandi Fortune of Santa Claus. She participated in soccer, Beta Club, Student Council, and Drama Club for four years. Fortune also served as baseball manager throughout high school. She was elected president of Beta Club, secretary of Student Council, and was listed on the honor roll. She also earned the Theatre I Award, Academic All-State, Academic All-Conference and lettered in soccer, dance team, drama, choir, and baseball management. After graduation, Fortune plans to move to New York to pursue a career in film acting, graphic design, and photography.

Laney M. Gelarden is the daughter of Vince and Tracey Gelarden of Evanston. She participated in track for two years, Beta Club and youth group for four, and yearbook for one. She is a 10-year member of 4-H Club. After graduation, Gelarden plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana.

Nicholas Gesualdo of Dale is the son of Angela Gesualdo and the late Scott Gesualdo. After graduation, he plans to join the military.

Ella Gogel is the daughter of Adam and Katie Gogel of New Boston. She participated in cheerleading and 4-H Club throughout high school, VOICE for two years, and Chess Club as a senior. Her accomplishments include earning the Team Leader Award in choir. After graduation, Gogel plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in social work and become a behavioral therapist.

Vanessa Gogel is the daughter of Josh and Angie Gogel of Dale. She participated in cheer and track for four years, Fellowship of Christian Athletes for three, and Big Brothers Big Sisters and Pep Club for two. Her accomplishments include earning the Mental Attitude Award twice in cheer, being in the top 10% of her class throughout high school, and Best of Spanish III. After graduation, Gogel plans to study pharmaceutical sciences at Purdue University to become a pharmacist.

Jett Goldsberry is the son of Jon and Rachael Goldsberry of Santa Claus. He ran track, wrestled, and played football, and was a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes all four years. Goldsberry is a three-time football team captain and his career accolades include three sectional titles, three regional titles, two 3A semi-state titles, and one 3A state title. Individual honors include All-Conference PAC, IFCA Junior All-State, Courier All-Area, Courier All-Area Offense, All-Conference PAC Offensive, Almanac Sports Southwest Indiana All Area Quarterback, IFCA All-State Top 50 Quarterback, Courier All-SW Indiana POY and Quarterback, All-Conference PAC MVP, Home Team Friday People's Choice MVP, SI.com Indiana, Indiana Preps Gridiron 3A Offensive, Indiana Preps All-State Top 22, Mr. INDYWEOUTHERE, Almanac Sports SW Indiana All-Area Quarterback, Indiana High School Football Digest Griddy 3A, IFCA Top 50, All-Conference PAC MVP, ESPN Owensboro Offensive and First Team, and Hoosier Prep Gridiron All-State Quarterback. After graduation, Goldsberry plans to play football and study business at Purdue University.

Leonardo Gomez is the son of Cosme and Rico Gomez. He participated in concert and marching band as a freshman and sophomore, Business Professionals of America and Chess Club and Future Farmers of America as a junior. After graduation, Gomez plans to join the workforce and continue his welding career by working in a boilermaker union. His next step is to start an apprenticeship.

Peyton Andrew Gray is the son of Andy and Brooke Gray of St. Meinrad. He participated in baseball, basketball, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and football for two. His accomplishments include winning state in football, PAC All-Conference in baseball, basketball, and football, and being in the top 10% of his class throughout high school. After graduation, Gray plans to attend Western Kentucky University and play baseball while studying construction management.

Madelyn Rose Greulich of Santa Claus is the daughter of Jenna Greulich and Brian Schwenk. After graduation, Greulich plans to attend Vincennes University in Jasper for a semester and then later transfer to the University of Southern Indiana to study psychology and criminal justice.

Mason Allen Grose of Dale is the son of Alitza and Jon Alvey and the late James Grose. He participated in Chess Club. After graduation, Grose plans to attend college to earn a degree in computer repair engineering.

Wyatt L. Gudorf is the son of Michael and Amanda Gudorf of St. Meinrad. He participated in Future Farmers of America, Welding Skills Competition, and Small Engine Skills Competition for three years and Automotive Skills Club for two. He ranked first in small engines and welding in a team district competition. Gudorf also saw success in FFA fruit sales. After graduation, he plans to work for Gudorf Plumbing Heating Cooling.

Painter Harbottle of Dale is the son of Heather and Shane Logsdon. He participated in Automotive Club for two years and Future Farmers of America and football for one. After graduation, Harbottle plans to join a union.

Luke Hartwig is the son of Ben and Theresa Hartwig of Lamar. He played football and was a member of Natural Helpers for four years. His accomplishments include being a state runner up in football in 2023, state champion in football in 2024, and regional champion in football in 2025. Hartwig earned distinction during Sportsmanship Recognition Week. After graduation, he plans to get a job in sales and do online personal training.

Nevaeh Hayden is the daughter of Troy and April Hayden of Chrisney. She participated in softball for four years and Young Women's Lead as a senior. Her accomplishments include earning a varsity letter and honor roll. After graduation, Hayden plans to attend Saint Mary of the Woods to play softball for four years while double majoring in criminology and psychology, with a minor in sociology. During that time she plans to get her license as a part-time emergency medical technician.

Rebecca Heeke is the daughter of Adam and Cassie Heeke of Evanston. She served as class president for three years. Heeke also participated in tennis, Natural Helpers, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout high school. Her accomplishments include being class president, being in the top 10% of her senior class, earning the DAR Good Citizen Award, being named Queen of the Dale Fall Festival in 2023 and Football Homecoming Queen in 2025. She is also a certified nursing assistant. After graduation, Heeke plans to attend the University of Evansville to major in exercise science and minor in psychology on a pre-physician assistant track.

Kathryn Hinshaw is the daughter of Kara and Matt Hinshaw of Santa Claus. She participated in soccer, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Beta Club, and swimming and diving throughout high school and track and field for two years. Her accomplishments include being conference champion, being on the Homecoming Court, earning the Poetry Award second place twice in National Beta Club, champion in Poetry Division II in Beta Club, All-Conference for swimming and soccer, Academic All-State for swimming and soccer, and earning four varsity letters in soccer and swimming and two varsity letters in track and field. Hinshaw was also named Most Improved in swimming as a senior and set a record 200 medley relay in swimming this year. After graduation, she plans to attend Indiana University's Kelley School of Business to master in exploratory business, study abroad, and open her own business someday.

Alexis Hoffman is the daughter of Adam and Kathy Hoffman of Troy. After graduation, she plans to join the workforce.

Molly Hoffman is the daughter of Travis and Stephanie Hoffman of Lamar. After graduation, she plans to work at Allen and Allen Family Dentistry.

Kalyssa Hopster of Mariah Hill is the daughter of Nathan and Amanda Hopster. After graduation, she plans to attend Vincennes University to earn a culinary arts degree. From there Hopster hopes to become a private or personal chef, or join the military.

Joshuwa Houchin is under the guardianship of Amanda Vickers of Chrisney. He played football, where he was a 3A State Champion, 3A Semi-State Champion, and 4A Sectional/Regional Champion. After graduation, Houchin plans to join the workforce.

Kacie Huffman of Evanston is the daughter of Keith Huffman and Libbi McClellan. She participated in Fellowship of Christian Athletes for two years, Future Farmers of America for seven, National Barrel Horse Association for five, Santa Claus Christian Church Youth Group for three, and varsity cross country as a senior. Her accomplishments include being NBHA 2023 Youth 2D Champion, Cross Country Academic All-State, being a member of Patriot Renaissance, and graduating summa cum laude. After graduation, Huffman plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in nursing.

(Continued on page 20)