

(Continued from page 19)

Jacob Moore of Chrisney is the son of Angela and David Moore. He participated in theater all four years, Jazz Club for two years, and choir his senior year. After graduation, Moore plans to become a journeyman electrician and specialize in theatrical engineering.

Brynlee Oakley of Grandview is the daughter of Jonathan and Gina Oakley and Lindsey Moseley. She participated in Educators Rising for three years and earned Patriot Renaissance honors. After graduation, Oakley plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to earn a degree in elementary education.

Brayden Oxley of Tennyson is the son of Brian and Stephanie Oxley. He participated in Beta Club, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and track and field for four years, and tennis for three. Oxley is also a 10-year member of 4-H Club. His track achievements include being a state finalist in four-time 800-meter relay, regional qualifier in four-time 800-meter relay, regional qualifier in 800 meter relay, is a two-time sectional champion, Academic All-State Honorable Mention, and PAC champion. Oxley's tennis career saw him as a regional qualifier in doubles, sectional champion, individual doubles sectional champion, PAC champion, PAC Doubles All-Conference, Academic All-State, All District, and All-State Honorable Mention. He is also a two-time state Beta Club champion in social studies and a show choir ensemble state champion. After graduation, Oxley plans to attend West Point and serve in the military for five years and the reserves for three.

Domanick Pagragan of Santa Claus is the son of Nick Pagragan. He participated in swimming for four years and travel soccer for three. Pagragan also took part in Aviation I and II. His accomplishments include lettering all four years in swimming, going to semi-state for soccer, and lettering in soccer. After graduation, Pagragan plans to begin basic training for the Air Force.

Carter Payne is the son of Chuck and Lacy Payne of Santa Claus. He participated in soccer, football, basketball, baseball, and wrestling. His accomplishments include being a sectional and regional champion in soccer as well as a sectional champion, regional champion, state runner up, and state champion in football. After graduation, Payne plans to attend Indiana State University to play football.

Hector Perez of Dale is the son of Antonio Perez and Maria Perez. He participated in boxing and soccer. After graduation, Perez plans to join a union, earn a living, and enjoy life.

Evan Pitt is the son of Don and Lisa

Pitt of Santa Claus. He participated in band, Jazz Club, Business Professionals of America, Dollhouse Band, and guitar. His accomplishments include earning second place in entrepreneurship at BPA RIC, seventh place in financial management at BPA RIC, earning honor roll throughout high school, and winning state in band. After graduation, Pitt plans to attend Purdue University.

Dalton Pledger is the son of Kim and Keith Pledger of Dale. He participated in wrestling and football. His accomplishments include winning state in football. After graduation, Pledger plans to attend college for wrestling.

Juliana Pozos is the daughter of Guillermo and Maria Pozos of Dale. She participated in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Beta Club for four years, track and field for three, and Theater Club for two. Pozos also served as manager for the soccer team for two years. Her accomplishments include earning the 2023 Top Health Student Award, varsity soccer letter for managing, maintaining honor roll throughout high school, ranking first in the Spanish III and Spanish IIII state competitions for Beta Club, and being named Student of the Week by WITZ. After graduation, Pozos plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana and earn a bachelor's degree in radiologic imaging.

Jake Prior is the son of Derek and Carrie Prior of Ferdinand. He participated in varsity basketball, Beta Club, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for four years and PAC leadership for one. His accomplishments include earning HBCA Academic All-State, PAC All-Academic and First Team All-Conference, IBCA Academic Honors Court, Renaissance Honor Roll for four years, four varsity letters in basketball, HBCA All-District, and HBCA West All-Star. Prior also served as captain of the varsity basketball team. After graduation, he plans to attend the University of St. Francis to major in business.

Miah Rahman is the daughter of Brian and Tina Rahman of St. Meinrad. She participated in Future Farmers of America for six years and varsity tennis, Beta Club, and Natural Helpers for four. Rahman is also a 10-year member of the 4-H Club. Her accomplishments include making varsity in tennis, ranking second in state agri-science for Beta Club, being elected vice president and secretary of FFA, being in the top 10% of her graduating class, and earning the Animal Science Award. After graduation, Rahman plans to attend Purdue University to earn a bachelor's degree in animal science with a concentration in bioscience.

Brisa Ramirez of Dale is the daughter of Israel Ramirez and Roseila Sandoval. She participated in Voice Club for two years, Pep Club for three, and Art Club for four years. Her accomplishments include ranking first place in art shows as a freshman and sophomore and having her artwork recognized by Mark Messmer and displayed by the Evansville Arts Council for the Congressional Art Competition. Ramirez also ranked first in Voice Club's Anti-Tobacco Movie Premier Art Competition, which went to Indianapolis. In addition, Ramirez ranked first in the 2026 Congressional Art Competition and her work was put on display in the U.S. Capitol. Ramirez was also awarded a $1,000 scholarship from the Watercolor Society of Indiana and the regional winner of the Juried Exhibition of Student Art at the Violin Art Competition in Indianapolis. After graduation, she plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in marketing with a minor in graphic design.

Jackson Rappe is the son of Joe and Alicia Rappe of Santa Claus. He participated in marching band for four years, track and field and Jazz Club for two, and Business Professionals of America and winter percussion for one. His accomplishments include earning the Jazz Band Award, maintaining honor roll throughout high school, and winning the state championship in marching band. After graduation, Rappe plans to attend Ball State University to major in music education to eventually earn a bachelor's degree and then earn his master's degree in jazz studies to teach at the collegiate level.

Ty Raven of Santa Claus is the son of Allen Raven and Stacy Byers. He participated in Automotive Club for three years. His accomplishments include maintaining perfect attendance as a junior, earning honor roll at least once per year throughout high school, and becoming ASE certified. After graduation, Raven plans to join the workforce.

Tyler Lee Raven is the son of Terry and Juanette Raven of Chrisney. He participated in weight lifting for four years, track and Fellowship of Christian Athletes for two, and wrestling for one. His accomplishments include being No. 1 for sacks and tackles for loss in football. After graduation, Raven plans to join the workforce.

Jonas Rea is the son of Jason and Heidi Rea of Chandler. He participated in Automotive Club for three years and Skills USA for two. After graduation, Rea plans to begin a career in welding.

Case Reinke is the son of Dan and Kathy Reinke of Dale. He participated in soccer and Future Farmers of America throughout high school. Reinke is also a member of the 4-H Club, where he earned grand champion recognition. In addition, his soccer career includes sectional, regional, and PAC championships. After graduation, Reinke plans to become a career firefighter and help run the family farm while running his own business.

Juan Reyes is the son of Juan and Aide Reyes of Dale. He participated in soccer for two years and boxing for one. After graduation, Reyes plans to attend a university.

Clayton Robens is the son of Monica and Adam Anderson of Santa Claus. He participated in track and field throwing shot put and javelin as a freshman. Robens was also involved with wrestling, where he reached a weight class of 175 to 190 pounds from sophomore through senior year. After graduation, he plans to join a carpentry union.

Melanie Roberts is the daughter of Carl and Jessica Sinclair of Richland. She participated in choir and Soup for the Soul for one year, Book Club for two, and Dungeons and Dragons Club as a senior. Her accomplishments include earning honor roll, maintaining a GPA of 3.611, and earning scholarships. After graduation, Roberts plans to attend the University of Southern Indiana to major in accounting while working a part-time job.

Ryan Rohr of Santa Claus is the son of Tina and the late Jeremy Rohr. After graduation, he plans to work for the operator union or at Mulzer's Crushed Stone.

Baleigh Roos is the daughter of Shawn Roos of Dale. She participated Book Club for two years and attended Nazarene Church throughout high school. As a sophomore Roos volunteered to help serve food and clean at a band camp for children. As a senior she volunteered at an animal shelter. Roos also worked a part-time job through her high school years. Her accomplishments include earning honor roll through junior and senior years, receiving stars for good performance at her job, maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.3-3.4, and being accepted into all three colleges she applied to. After graduation, Roos plans to spend all summer working and saving money to attend Kentucky Wesleyan College to earn a business administration degree. She then plans to get her license as a nail technician and open her own salon as a side business.

Analeese Rose is the daughter of Sam and Jessica Rose of Rockport. She participated in cheerleading all four years of high school, track for two years, and Pep Club for one. Rose also attended Indiana State Police summer camps and reads quite a bit. Her accomplishments include going to state for cheerleading and getting into college.

(Continued on page 22)