In a special called meeting Wednesday, January 7, Green County Fiscal Court approved the solicitation of bids regarding the Liletown Road Bridge Project.

"The Fiscal Court is thrilled to receive funding in the approximate amount of $850,000 to replace the bridge on Liletown Road. The bidding process is underway and construction will begin soon", said Judge-Executive John Frank.

The Court, in its regular monthly meeting Thursday, January 15, approved the appointment of Daryl Sexton as Emergency Management Director on a temporary basis effective January 26, 2026.

In other business, magistrates approved: (1) Toreimburse the Green County Sheriff for the Deputy Clerk's quarterly salary

(2) The annual contract with DC Elevator Company, of Lexington, for quarterly preventive maintenance of the Judicial Center elevators

Magistrates were presented the Coroner's Report for 2025 and an informative letter from Waste Connections regarding a Consumer Price Index (CPI) rate increase of 4.56% effective January 1, 2026, pertaining to trash and garbage services.

Benefit for Rev. Smith is Saturday

There will be a meal and gospel singing fundraiser benefitting Rev. Trajan Smith on Saturday, Jan. 24 at 4 p.m. CT at Greensburg Church of the Nazarene.

There will be singing, a meal, and an auction. Additionally, Rev. Trajan will give his testimony.

Featured performers will be Brook Marchal, Ann-Michael Tucker, Benson and Leah Sexton, Adam Cain and friends, Molly and Clara Myes.

A meal will consist of pulled pork sandwiches, baked potatoes, baked beans, slaw, cowboy beans, cheese, macaroni and cheese, and desserts.

A silent auction will be held and bidding will take place throughout the benefit and winners will be announced at the end. Winners must be present to win.

The benefit will be donations only. All proceeds will go toward the medical expenses of Rev. Trajan.

AARP Tax Aide program to assist with taxes starting in Feb.

The AARP Foundation Tax Aide program will again be assisting people with filing their taxes for the 2025 tax year in the Green County Extension Office on Mondays beginning February 2, 2026, except for Feb. 9 and that has been changed Feb. 10. This service is available on Mondays only and is by appointment only. To make an appointment call Brenda Cook at 270/932-7459. The program funded by the AARP Foundation and the IRS is primarily for those over 65 and low to moderate income families but is open to anyone whose tax return is in "scope".

In "scope" means the counselors have been trained on these returns. Sorry, farmers and clergy are NOT in scope.

New this year:
* Deduction for interest paid on a new car loan; if the vehicle was assembled in the United States. (Must provide VIN number and the amount of interest paid, this should be on the paper work you received at the dealership when you bought your car.)

*Qualified overtime

(provide total hours of overtime) and tip deductions (total voluntary tips).

When making your appointment if these deductions pertain to you, please ask about the paper work required.

The local volunteer team consists of Brenda and Cliff Cook, Bettie Russell, Carolyn Scott, Beverly Edwards, Kathy Curry, Jo Ann Price, and Birgit Weeks.

The counselors will assist in completing the tax return and e-filing it all for free.

The team thanks and appreciates the Green County Extension Office for their accommodations.
