

DRAGONS & LADY DRAGONS

Scout Brockman was named Player of the Game for the Lady Dragons in their win over North Bullitt Saturday. Green County played the Lady Eagles in the Cambron Irvin Classic at North Hardin High School. Brockman had another double-double as she scored 24 points and grabbed 19 rebounds.

Kai Wade was named Player of the Game for Green County in the Cambron Irvin Classic at North Hardin High School on Saturday. Wade scored 14 points for the Dragons in the 78-52 loss to the Trojans. Presenting Wade with the medal is Derieco Irvin, father of Cambron Irvin, who was a player at North Hardin several years ago. Derieco Irvin is also GCHS Head Coach Montrelle Irvin's brother.

Photos by Dale Curry

Molly Dixon goes up strong against the North Bullitt defense Saturday. She scored 12 points in the win as the Lady Dragons improved to 14-7. The win is their seventh in their last eight games.

Deacon James scored seven points for the Dragons in their loss to North Hardin on Saturday. Green County dropped to 5-13 with the loss.

Paxton Bloyd has to shoot over the North Hardin defense Saturday. Bloyd scored nine points in the loss.

Kylee Hargan gets the open shot against North Bullitt in a game Saturday at North Hardin. Green County won 64-58.

Chloe Fortner scored eight points for the Lady Dragons Saturday against North Bullitt. Green County won 64-58.

Caleb Corbin avoids the defensive pressure for two of his five points in the game against North Hardin. Corbin also led the Dragons with six rebounds.

Brooklyn Jewell brings the ball up the court against North Bullitt Saturday. She scored four points in the Lady Dragons' win.

Isabella Clopton poured in 12 points for Green County in their game against North Bullitt. The Lady Dragons' record is 14-7 after the win.

Demetrius Hancock is obviously fouled on this play against North Hardin. Hancock hit two free throws for the Dragons.