

Dragons win two, lose two

DALE CURRY
STAFF WRITER

From January 31 through February 7, the Dragons won two games but lost two to make their record 7-14 while winning their first game against a district opponent. The losses were to North Hardin and LaRue County and the wins were over Hart County and LKY.

GC 9 11 17 15 52
NH 21 24 16 17 78
Individual scoring:
Kai Wade 14, Uthay Laws 11, Paxton Bloyd 9, Deacon James 7, Caleb Corbin 5, Demetrius Hancock 2, River Jessie 2, Braxton Judd 2.

Rebounds:
Corbin 6, Bloyd 3, James 2, Hancock 1, Judd 1, Wade 1.

LaRue County 73 Green County 44

Cold shooting continued to be a nemesis for the Dragons in this district game. From the three-point area, the Dragons were just two of 19 and overall, they were 16 of 53 for 30%.

At LaRue County when these two teams met, the Dragons lost by just nine points. Prior to this season, the Dragons had a three-game winning streak over the Hawks.

Scoring by quarters:
GC 8 12 10 14 44
LC 15 16 20 22 73
Individual scoring:
Laws 14, Wade 12, Massiah Shively 5, Bloyd 3, Hancock 3, Jessie 3, James 2, Judd 2.

Rebounds:
Wade 5, Bloyd 4, James 4, Corbin 3, Shively 3, Judd 2, Jessie 1.

Green County 81 Hart County 64

This game was a 37-point turnaround from the first time these two teams played this season on December 16. Hart County won that game 64-44 but this game was completely different.

After Hart County had a 9-8 lead over the Dragons, Green County rattled off 13 straight points to take a lead that they would never give back.

While it had been virtually impossible to hit a three-point shot in recent games, the Dragons connected Utay Laws, a senior member of the high school basketball team was honored for scoring 1,000 career points. With him are Head Coach Montrelle Irvin and Laws' father, Charles Laws.

Freshman Braxton Judd got the starting nod Friday night against Hart County and he made the most of it, scoring 15 points and menacing the Raiders' interior game.

on eight long-range bombs. James was responsible for five of those, while Bloyd hit two and Corbin added the other one.

The double-digit lead that the Dragons opened up at the end of the first quarter was maintained throughout the game as Green County won their first district game of the season.

Scoring by quarters:
GC 21 21 14 25 81
HC 10 13 13 28 64

Individual scoring:
James 21, Judd 15, Bloyd 14, Laws 10, Wade 9, Shively 6, Corbin 3, Hancock 3.

Rebound stats were not available.

Green County 67 LKY 42

After the emotional win over Hart County Friday night, the Dragons returned to their home court to take on LKY on Saturday afternoon, following the induction ceremony into the Green County High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

LKY is a co-op of home school students who live in Louisville.

The Dragons got off to a hot start, scoring the first nine points of the game. During the first quarter, the Dragons connected on three three-point shots and finished the game with 10 three-point shots, something they have struggled to hit all year.

LKY was no match for the Dragons as Green County continued to build on their early lead until they gained a 35 point advantage with 3:21 to go in the third quarter which made the clock run for the rest of the game.

Scoring by quarters:
GC 24 21 17 5 67
LKY 8 7 12 15 42
Individual scoring:
Bloyd 17, Laws 15, James 11, Wade 11, Corbin 5, Hancock 4, Judd 4.

Rebounds not available.

The Dragons play at home on Tuesday night, February 17, against Bardstown. They follow that up with their last regular season home game on Thursday, January 19 against Cumberland County.

Uthay Laws led the Dragons with 12 points in their 73-44 loss to LaRue County. The Dragons are 5-14 on the season.

Kai Wade scored 12 points for the Dragons against LaRue County. The Dragons had a cold shooting night, hitting just two of 19 three-point shots.

Despite the defensive hold, Paxton Bloyd drives to the goal in the game against LaRue County last week. Bloyd averages 12 points per game for the Dragons.

Caleb Corbin attempts to evade the LaRue County defense in last week's game. The Dragons lost 73-44.

Hayli Milby was one of three students selected to participate in the Forcht Bank's "Roll in the Dough" contest during the games with LaRue County High School. Milby collected several dollars as she rolled around on the tarp.

Andrew Houk used the adhesive tape that was wrapped around his upper body to secure money during halftime of the boys' game last week at Green County High School.

Carter Allen picked up some easy money in the "Roll in the Dough," sponsored by Forcht Bank during the game with LaRue County.

Photos by Dale Curry