FAITH CAN MOVE MOUNTAINS

Lord, Hear Our Prayer

Living in Love

If you truly desire to live a good and holy life you must "live in love," as the apostle Paul directs us in the fifth chapter of Ephesians. There he says "Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God." (Ephesians 5:1-2 NIV) What this means is that we should try to imitate Christ's selfless act of sacrifice in everything we do. Walking in the way of love is just a simple way of saying that our lifestyle and our daily conduct should reflect a life of service and sacrifice. A good example of this might be how a mother will serve her family from the time she gets up in the morning until going to bed at night. She gets up and fixes breakfast for the family and might even make lunch for them to take to school or work and then goes off to work herself, earning money to pay the rent or mortgage and the other expenses. Good parents often make sacrifices of time and money to help their children, and don't complain too much about it because they are helping their own children. But God wants us to treat everyone as if they are family. To "walk in the way of love" is to treat everyone as if they are your brother or your sister. As children of God, we should reflect God's likeness in how we live, and when we succeed in doing that we are truly living in love.

–Christopher Simon

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever. Psalm 107:1
