“Winning district was such a highlight because this was our 4th consecutive title. This is the most well-rounded team I have had the opportunity to coach,” said Coach Jasmine Barnett. “Each of the students work hard, and that is reflected in their success. The 8th graders on this team are quite impressive. If they stick with this through high school, the sky is the limit.”

Green County Intermediate School won district, tallying 56.5 points.
