

Those in attendance at Saturday's annual Black History Program at GCMS stood and joined hands in the singling of "Reach Out and Touch (Somebody's Hand)." They also sang a verse of the program's opening song, "Life Every Voice and Sing."

Celebrating Black History Month

Honoring Our Past, Building Our Future

James "Sonny" Shively welcomed those in attendance at Saturday's 24th Annual Black History Program.

League of Citizens member Patricia Calhoun presented the Purpose of Black History Month during the annual Black History Program.

The Greensburg/Green County League of Citizens President Carolyn Compton offered greetings and words of gratitude to those in attendance at the annual Black History Program.

Serving as Mistresses of Ceremony at the Black History Month event were League of Citizens members Alberta Thornton, left, and Margaret Thompson.

Mrs. Naomi Mills was the recipient of the U.J. Wood Good Neighbor Award. Her son, Robert, left, was presented the award by Kobie Wood, great-grandson of the late U.J. Wood.

Rev. Andre Calhoun delivered the invocation at the annual Black History Program Saturday, February 14.

The Blessing of the Food was delivered by League of Citizens member Robert Mills during the Black History Month event.

League of Citizens member Larry Compton gave the dismissal prayer.

Jerry Cowherd recognized elected officials during the Black History Month event.

Photos by Clevis Jeffries

CLIP 'N SAVE

Thomas Riley and the crew will soon be back in Green, Taylor and adjoining Counties

Thomas Riley is shown with Dad, Pat Riley and son Brayden

The Riley Family has been doing high-quality, affordable painting of barn roofs, buildings and homes for 30 years.

Thomas is looking forward to improving the appearance and the value and extending the life of your property.

CALL 803-341-4363

to discuss painting when the weather makes it possible

Examples of Riley's painting in Central Kentucky

